- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

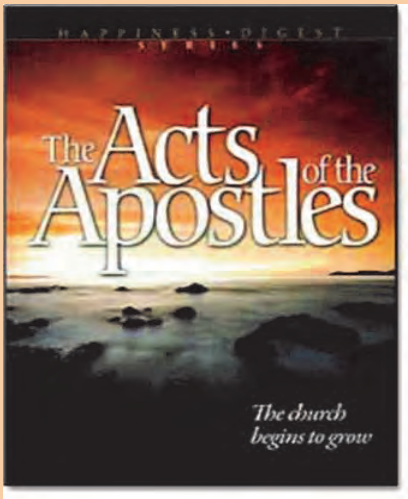
Stewardship Reflection–
Stewardship Gifts Irreplaceable

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1st Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your Stewardship gifts according to God's plan; helping to do His work here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God has planned for you, no one else can do it.

"The Acts of the Apostles"



This 7 week scripture series tells the story of the spread of the Gospel and the growth of the early church from its beginnings at Pentecost. The Holy Spirit empowers the preaching of Peter, Paul and the other disciples to take the faith from Jerusalem to Judea, throughout Samaria and ultimately to the ends of the earth.

What is Ordinary Time? Anything BUT Ordinary!
Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the Incarnation, Death on the Cross, Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus Christ and the Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weekdays of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.
Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal toward which all of history is directed is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe — USCCB.ORG

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JANUARY 17, 2016

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 24, 2016 – Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the Sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant. Jesus said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Commentary:

The prophecy from Isaiah read by Jesus proclaims a vision of a world God has long desired - a world of freedom and wholeness. The good news ("glad tidings") is that God's desire is being fulfilled now in Jesus. We, too, bring God's vision to fulfillment in our service of the poor, the oppressed, and those in need.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

We also find troubling the attitudes resulting from the emergence of "reproductive technologies," namely that children can be manufactured to fulfill preconceived needs. We are saddened by the direct killing of human life that is done under the façade of such terms as "pregnancy reduction" and the discarding of the so-called "extra human embryos". The desire of some to clone human life is supremely disconcerting, as are all efforts to promote embryonic stem-cell use. Cardinal Justin Rigali, Homily for Pro-Life Mass

Al Mac Elrath, Respect Life Coordinator - 779-7130
