TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 18, 2022

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Good and Gracious God,
Help us to be responsible and
generous stewards of all the spiritual and material blessings you have placed in our care.

May we always bear witness to your love
in this world so that the afflicted and the needy will find in us generous and welcoming friends.
Amen.

A Prayer for the New Catechetical Year

Holy Spirit, you are the Paraclete, the Advocate, who comes alongside us to comfort and guide.

Strengthen us as we enter this new school year.

Give us peace about the things that worry us most, and help us to accomplish what we desire most.

We trust that you are always with us. Remind us to remain open to your inspiration, ask for your guidance, and choose in accordance with your will.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

$5712.82 96 total donations

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”

2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Living Stewardship

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise
the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” LUKE 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run “neck and neck” as top priority. Is money a “god” that you put before God? Living Stewardship by giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

From the Pastor's Desk If It's Tuesday, This Must Be . . . Cherry Hill!

The Passion Play at Oberammergau, Germany

Dear Parishioners,

Guten morgen! Or, as they say in Bavaria: Grüß Gott (a form of “God bless you”).

Maybe some of you will recall the movie from 1969 about a bunch of American tourists in Europe entitled “If It’s Tuesday, This Must Be Belgium.” I’m going to have to watch it again. I understand there is a sequel. I don’t need to watch the second film. We just experienced it on our own.

Last night I slept in my own bed at the rectory. I was exhausted after being up from about 5 AM (Central European time) in Munich. The flight home from Germany to Philadelphia was rather uneventful and it arrived on time. Getting through customs was another story. I don’t want to throw anybody under the bus, but as a friendly reminder, don’t try to bring the uneaten fresh fruit (apples, pears) that you were served for breakfast back into the country. It can cause certain “problems” with U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

Continuing with my report of the pilgrimage (saga) from last week, we spent only a few hours in Bratislava (Slovakia) and then two days in Vienna (Austria). Vienna’s highlights included seeing its cathedral (St. Stephen) and going to an orchestra concert. Later, we visited Altötting (Bavaria) where there is the famous statue (Black Madonna) of Our Lady of Altötting and a Capuchin Franciscan friary housing the relics of St. Conrad of Parzham, O.F.M. Cap. Both of these are worth investigating. Pope Benedict XVI has a great devotion to Our Lady of Altötting and even gifted his episcopal ring to her from his time as Archbishop of Munich. The ring was then placed on the statue itself. St. Conrad of Parzham had a story similar to St. André Bessette in our part of the world (Montreal). Both were humble porters (doorkeepers) who became saints.

Our pilgrims later attended the famous Passion Play in Oberammergau (Bavaria). The play which is performed in a covered, open-air theater takes around six hours to complete. All of the many participants are from the village. There is a magnificent, large choir and an orchestra. Naturally, the dialogue and songs and are completely in German, but we were given a book with the complete translation into English. Because of the length of time, we were allotted time at the intermission to have a meal in a local restaurant.

The Passion Play is an event I had heard about in my youth but never realized I would eventually experience for myself. The play was not a performance but an event to be experienced. The current interpretation showed how the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) were fulfilled in the life of Jesus. There was some obvious artistic creativity and poetic license employed during the performance. I was disappointed, however, by the portrayal of the Last Supper as it omitted the most important words of consecration by Jesus (“This is My Body. . . This is My Blood”). Perhaps, this may be just another indication of how many people do not truly grasp the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist.

Finally, it was on to the city of Munich with its famous Glockenspiel (clock) and many biertagens.

While we didn’t lose anyone permanently during the trip, there were a few moments of separation-anxiety. Some items (backpacks, passports) were lost but then found. The tour bus, unfortunately, took off with my cell phone. I don’t know what it wanted with my phone. Thanks to modern technology, I was able to track the phone on my computer and it was returned the next day. (You didn’t actually think that I was going to blame myself for this mishap, did you?)

I am certainly glad to be home!

| 4:30 PM | Fr. Namiotka | Julius Len | Sr. Sophia | J. Cepeda | |
| 8:30 AM | Fr. Namiotka | Becca Julie | K. Glover | S. Oatway | T. Kenny E. Breaani |
| 11:00 AM | Fr. Namiotka | Becca/Choir Julie | J. Flynn | L. Flynn | |

This week we are beginning our catechetical year with our children in elementary and middle school age. Here are some tasks we all can accomplish:
 Pray for the children and their families.
 Pray for the Catechists and volunteers who have come forth to accomplish this ministry, who will be commissioned at the 11:00 AM MASS this Sunday, September 18, 2022

It is a very compelling service; it draws us into the mysteries of our FAITH, in its hopes and promises; it mingles us into the life and faith of others and it makes us appreciative of all that our FAITH means. We learn and understand it more by doing and sharing it more. We welcome all our children and their families. We give thanks to the Catechists and Volunteers who have committed themselves to the ministry of Catechist. We promise our prayers for all of them.

Heartfelt thanks to the following people who have committed to the Ministry of Catechesis for the current school year 2022-2023:
Sr. Maria Liber; Marianne Wilkins; Mark Famador; Angela Russo; Kathleen Kraemer; Angela Mac Neill; Jose Andino; Ericka Andino; Jennifer Flynn; Matthew McCloskey; Sara Bresani; Nick Bresani; Lena Galati; Lynda Chiaravallotti. We appreciate your dedication to the religious education of the children of our parish.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is asking for donations of sealed plastic utensils that are provided by restaurants for take-out orders. These will be given to the Cathedral Kitchen and St. Joseph's House in Camden. They can be dropped off by the Soap for Hope basket in the church foyer the third weekend of each month. Thank you for your consideration.

September is National Recovery Month/
National Suicide Prevention Month

There are millions of Americans whose lives have been transformed through recovery. Recovery Month provides a vehicle for everyone to celebrate these accomplishments. All of us, throughout our lives have experienced peaks and valleys, both big and small. With strength, support, and hope from those we love, people in recovery are resilient.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Sept. 25, 2022 Luke 16: 19-31

Lazarus, covered with sores, lies at the doors of a rich man who ignores Lazarus' pleas for food. Both the rich man and Lazarus eventually die. Lazarus goes to heaven; the rich man goes to the netherworld. The rich man begs to have Lazarus come to him "to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue." Abraham replied to the rich man, "My child remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus received what was bad, but now he is comforted, while you are tormented."

Commentary

This parable is blunt. How the rich man spends the afterlife was determined in this life by his lack of concern for the 'poor man lying at his door.' NOW is the time to bridge whatever chasms exist between us and those in need. After death, the divide is impassable, and our eternity is set. So, NOW is your time. Who is lying at your door?

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Vatican sends Cardinal Krajewski to fourth visit to Ukraine

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Polish Cardinal Konrad Krajewski will embark on his fourth visit to Ukraine on Pope Francis' behalf, the Vatican announced.

In a statement released Sept. 9, the Dicastery for the Service of Charity said Cardinal Krajewski would visit the cities of Odesa, Zhytomyr, Kharkiv and other locations in eastern Ukraine "in these days."

The dicastery said the purpose of Cardinal Krajewski's visit was to provide support to "various communities of faithful, priests and religious, and their bishops, who for more than 200 days continue to remain in the places of their ministry despite the dangers of war."

The cardinal also will deliver aid "through the Caritas offices of the various dioceses," the statement read.
