TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 2, 2022

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Stewardship Corner: 27th Sunday - Ordinary Time Good Stewardship

“For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.”
2nd TIMOTHY 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good Steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

From the Pastor's Desk "Houston, We Have a Problem"

Dear Parishioners,

I couldn't but help recalling the above phrase attributed to the Apollo 13 astronauts when I heard about another incident recently occurring within the Catholic Church.

In a somewhat recent matter necessitating official clarification, the Vatican issued a statement (March 15, 2021) on the blessing of homosexual unions:

Responsum of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith to a dubium regarding the blessing of the unions of persons of the same sex

Does the Church have the power to give the blessing to unions of persons of the same sex?

Response: Negative

Part of the Vatican response reads: . . . Since blessings on persons are in relationship with the sacraments, the blessing of homosexual unions cannot be considered licit. This is because they would constitute a certain imitation or analogue of the nuptial blessing invoked on the man and woman united in the sacrament of Matrimony, while in fact "there are absolutely no grounds for considering homosexual unions to be in any way similar or even remotely analogous to God's plan for marriage and family".

However, the Belgium bishops' conference, in an obvious contradiction to the Vatican teaching, recently issued a proposed liturgy for same-sex couples. Does anyone else see a problem here?

Concerning another area of Church teaching, various voices are still raising the issue of ordination for women, although a previous pope (affirmed by Pope Francis) made the following definitive statement:

Wherefore, in order that all doubt may be removed regarding a matter of great importance, a matter which pertains to the Church's divine constitution itself, in virtue of my ministry of confirming the brethren (cf. Lk 22:32) I declare that the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgment is to be definitively held by all the Church's faithful. ORDINATIO SACERDOTALIS, John Paul II (May 22, 1994)

Some time ago (March 19, 2016) when Pope Francis wrote Amoris Laetitia, there were various questions raised about the document. In fact, four cardinals of the Catholic Church formally questioned the pope in a dubia—a document asking for formal clarifications on Church doctrine. Specifically, the document asked whether divorced and re-married Catholics are to be admitted to Holy Communion. Simply stated, Church teaching has traditionally prohibited such without a proper annulment of any previous marriage bond. The dubia was never formally and directly answered.

Now the Holy Father has written on what is necessary to be admitted to Holy Communion:

To be admitted to the feast all that is required is the wedding garment of faith which comes from the hearing of his Word (cf. Ro 10:17). DESIDERIO DESIDERAVI, Francis (June 29, 2022)

However, it has been pointed out by bishops and theologians that this seems to contradict the defined teaching of the Council of Trent (1545-63):

Canon 11. If anyone says that faith alone is sufficient preparation for receiving the sacrament of the most Holy Eucharist, let him be anathema. [Si quis dixerit, solam fidem esse sufficientem praeparationem ad sumendum sanctissimum eucharistiae sacramentum, anathema sit.]

Finally, there is the situation of the arrest of 90-year-old Cardinal Joseph Zen and relative silence by the Vatican.

Confusion? Apparent or deliberate contradiction? Silence? What is a faithful Catholic supposed to make of all of this? We live in very precarious times.

“If today you hear his voice, harden not your heart”.

This saying from Holy Scripture is addressed to each of us. The disciples in this Sunday’s Gospel ask for the Lord to increase their faith. They are realizing how little they know JESUS, even after having been with him for quite a while, seeing his miracles and hearing his words full of wisdom. They seem to be up to something. They seem to realize that FAITH is a gift to be asked for, nurtured, and humbly accepted as a gift. In our world these words are almost foreign. Who wants to hear God’s word? Who is realizing the need for FAITH? Jesus continues to speak but there are many interferences, way too many distractions.

Yet, we who believe are invited to keep up the conversation, to keep on evangelizing, especially our youth. Children are able to wonder and to be mesmerized by beautiful things so let us tell them about JESUS, the Disciples, Mary, the Saints. Let us show them how to open up their soul and mind for JESUS, especially in HIS presence in the Eucharist. This is what we are hoping to accomplish in the religious education/formation of our children.

To help us achieve this goal, we are equipping our classrooms with smart TVs to access the wonderful videos and resources our publishers have placed on their portals. It has become a bigger expense than we thought. If anyone would help by making a contribution it would be greatly appreciated.

Teaching Mass Celebrated

10:30 AM Saturday, October 22 in the Parish Chapel. The Eucharistic Revival in the Camden Diocese asks each parish to teach parishioners the meaning of each Mass part. Catholics have questions about the Mass or misunderstandings. Come and learn as Fr. Chris celebrates a teaching Mass for us.

The Landscape of Our Prayer– 10:00 AM Monday, October 31st & November 7th Parish Hall

Prayer takes different forms depending on the place our heart finds itself. This was true of Jesus as well. He was drawn to the desert and the mountain; places both literal and symbolic for Jesus as they are for each of us. In each life experience our prayer can express itself differently. Come and explore the ways we can meet God in the landscape of our everyday lives. Sr. Claire D'Auria will be out presenter. Call the Parish Office (856-424-3212) to register.

Pope Francis' October Prayer Intentions: Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of: Dorothy Cerone (Jeanne Cona's mother)

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 9, 2022 - Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when Jesus saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then Jesus said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Commentary:

The ten lepers exemplify aspects of our relationship with God: acknowledgement of need ("Have pity on us"), obedience ("Go...as they were going"), and reception of divine mercy ("they were cleansed"). The Samaritan leper demonstrates another aspect of this relationship: only when he returns to glorify God and thank Jesus, does Jesus reveal that he has, in fact, been saved. For us, as for the Samaritan leper, salvation is revealed and experienced in worship and thanksgiving.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Building a Culture of Life in a Post-Roe World –Statement by Archbishop William E. Lori, Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities "An Answer to Prayer."

The Supreme Court's reversal of Roe v. Wade is, without question, an answer to prayer. In its opinion in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, the Justices ended the nearly fifty year nationwide regime of abortion on demand; a regime that was based on the indefensible view that the U. S. Constitution implicitly forbids government from protecting the preborn child in the womb from the violence of abortion... In a post-Roe world, Catholics must now work together for another even deeper paradigm shift. We must move beyond a paradigm shift in the law in order to help people of our nation better see who we can be a nation by truly understanding what we owe to one another as members of the same family. To build a world in which all are welcome, we must heed the words of St. Teresa of Calcutta and remember "that we belong to one another."

Public Square Rosary October 15, 12 Noon. We will meet in front of St. Thomas More near the statue of the Blessed Mother. (Bring a chair if necessary). All are encouraged to attend. See Greta.
