THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 3, 2024

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Lord Jesus, you cleansed the Temple so that it would be dedicated to worship. You showed us our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit.

Guide us on how we need to grow in respect for our bodies.

Cleanse our hearts so that we might be more dedicated to you.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father and the Spirit forever.

Amen

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”

2nd Chronicles 7:14

The collection for Sunday, February 25, 2024, was $7058.91.00. The budgeted amount was $8500. When it comes down to it, we must remember that we reap what we sow—and so we must sow goodness and generosity wherever we can. Consider what you hope to get out of Mass. Do you leave with full hearts? Do you leave with something to consider, something to mull over? What value do you find in attending Mass? Just like your blessings, you reap what you sow when attending Mass. You will get out of it whatever you put into it in terms of effort, care, and attention.

Stations of the Cross will be held in the Chapel at 7:00 PM every Friday during Lent. All are encouraged to take part in this Lenten Devotion.

Stewardship Corner: 3rd Sunday of Lent Stewardship Virtues

“You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything...” - EXODUS 20:4

How many “gods” do you put before God? “Idols” do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times, they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God’s help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue in Stewardship.

From the Pastor's Desk

An Explanation of Some Lenten Practices

Dear Parishioners,

Depending on your parish, diocese, country or liturgical rite, there may be certain customs during Lent that do not occur universally. Certainly the blessing and distribution of ashes is universal in the Catholic Church, but what about the covering of statues/crucifixes or the removal of holy water in some parishes?

Catholic author Philip Kosloski gives one helpful explanation regarding the veiling of statues:

It seems strange that during the most sacred time of year we cover everything that is beautiful in our churches, even the crucifix. Shouldn't we be looking at the painful scene at Calvary while we listen to the Passion narrative on Palm Sunday? While it may appear counterintuitive to veil statues and images during the final weeks of Lent, the Church recommends this practice to heighten our senses and build within us a longing for Easter Sunday The rubrics can guide us. In the Roman Missal we find the instruction, "In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from [the fifth] Sunday [of Lent] may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil." This is the current practice of the Church, but veiling from the Fifth Sunday of Lent onward is miniscule compared to what was once practiced. For example, in Germany there was a tradition to veil the altar from view throughout all of Lent The unveiling before the Easter Vigil is a great reminder of our own life on earth. We live in a "veiled" world, in exile from our true home. But why go through such lengths to cover up images that are designed to raise our hearts and minds toward heaven? First of all, we use veils to alert us of the special time that we are in. When we walk into church and notice everything is covered, we immediately know that something is different. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready. Secondly, the veils focus our attention on the words being said at Mass. When we listen to the Passion narrative, our senses are allowed to focus on the striking words from the Gospel and truly enter into the scene.

Third, the Church uses veils to produce a heightened sense of anticipation for Easter Sunday. This is further actualized when you attend daily Mass and see the veils each day. You don't want them to be there because they are hiding some very beautiful images. And therein lies the whole point: the veils are not meant to be there forever. The images need to be unveiled; it is unnatural for them to be covered. The unveiling before the Easter Vigil is a great reminder of our own life on earth. We live in a "veiled" world, in exile from our true home. It is only through our own death that the veil is lifted and we are finally able to see the beauty of everything in our lives.

In our parish the statues and crucifixes were covered at the beginning of Lent (rather than the 5th Sunday) for merely practical purposes. When the purple background drapes were put up in the main church sanctuary for Lent, the statues and crucifix were also covered. Maybe, I should have actually waited a while longer. Mea culpa.

Regarding those parishes (not ours) that remove holy water from the fonts during Lent, I refer you to the following response from the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Sacraments (2004):

This Dicastery is able to respond that the removing of Holy Water from the fonts during the season of Lent is not permitted, in particular, for two reasons:

1. The liturgical legislation in force does not foresee this innovation, which in addition to being 'praeter legem' is contrary to a balanced understanding of the season of Lent, which though truly being a season of penance, is also a season rich in the symbolism of water and baptism, constantly evoked in liturgical texts.
2. The encouragement of the Church that the faithful avail themselves frequently of the sacraments is to be understood to apply also to the season of Lent. The 'fast' and 'abstinence' which the faithful embrace in this season does not extend to abstaining from the sacraments or sacramentals of the Church.

The practice of the Church has been to empty the Holy Water fonts on the days of the Sacred Triduum in preparation of the blessing of the water at the Easter Vigil, and it corresponds to those days on which the Eucharist is not celebrated (i.e., Good Friday and Holy Saturday).

I realize that customs sometimes vary in different parishes, so I have tried to explain the reasons why I am incorporating or not incorporating certain practices for Lent in St. Thomas More Parish.

WE ARE GOD’S TEMPLE

The Temple was a building that stood on a Hill in Jerusalem where God’s people could be in His presence. Jesus, in today’s Gospel, tells us that He, His body, is the true Temple that will be destroyed, but rebuilt in three days. We know that at Jesus’ Crucifixion the curtains of the temple that protected the inner room were ripped apart from the top. With His death and Resurrection Jesus becomes the new Temple, present in His people. In Him, we too become God’s Temple, as St. Paul tells us: “Do you not know that your body is a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?” (1 Cor. 3:16); As we know, this happens because, since from the beginning, in Jesus, God chose to become the Emmanuel, God-with-us: “The Word became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). If we identify ourselves as a Jesus follower today, we, our body, is a temple – God’s Temple.

How do we live this beautiful gift to be this little Temple today, wherever we are, to manifest His glory, His Presence, His great love to each and every person we encounter? May our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Temple and Jesus’ first Tabernacle teach us the way, His way!

Eucharistic Revival Quotes from Pope Francis

“All we have in the world does not satisfy our infinite hunger. We need Jesus, to be with him, to be nourished at his table, on his words of eternal life! Believing in Jesus means making him the center, the meaning of our life. Christ is not an optional element: he is the “Living Bread” the essential nourishment.

Binding oneself to him, in a true relationship of faith and love does not mean being tied down, but being profoundly free, always on the journey.”
Angelus—August 23, 2015

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions March 2024 For the new martyrs

We pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world inflame the Church with their courage and missionary enthusiasm.

Are you able to help? Some parishioners from St. Mary's Village, (right behind us) need rides to Mass. Please call the Parish Office (856-424-3212) if you can help fill this need.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 3, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 10, 2024 - John 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life..." Everyone who lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Commentary:

This gospel sets forth the tensions of Christian life in a series of contrasts: believe-not believe, light-darkness, and live in truth because God has loved us and sent his Son to show us the way that we might not perish but have eternal life.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "Abortion is a profoundly immoral and unjust act: the taking of an innocent human life at its most defenseless. As Christians committed to justice and righteousness, we cannot stand by and just let that happen."— Dr. James Anderson, Author

2024 APPEAL: "THROUGH HIM AND FOR HIM" CAMPAIGN PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
From the depth of your riches, you gave us your Son.
In the Eucharist, we have our spiritual sustenance and our focus.
Sustain us, guide us, and bless us as we carry out our work, always mindful of our purpose.
For from him, and through him and for him are all things.
To him be glory forever.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns one
God forever and ever.
Amen.

*St. Thomas More's Goal is $89,700. We will need the help of every parishioner to meet this goal. Thank you for prayerfully considering your donation. ****

To date we have received gifts from 21 people totaling $9915.00 which is 11.1% of our total goal. Thank you for your donations.

TREX Recycling Plastic Challenge---We have the opportunity to receive outdoor benches for St. Thomas More with the collection of 1,000 pounds of plastic in one year. That's a lot, but Christ our Light has done the challenge and has volunteered to donate plastic on behalf of us. Many plastic items that are not recyclable can be collected, including grocery bags, bread bags, dry cleaning bags, newspaper sleeves, produce bags, cereal bags, paper towel/toilet paper overwrap, Ziploc or food storage bags.

In order to do this, we need some volunteers to help deliver it from STM to a local drop off. Let Sr. Ann or Chris Baeckstrom know by March 17. Or email stmfaithandjustice@gmail.com.
