FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 10, 2024

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Let HIS Light Shine

Nobody is a Christian for oneself alone
The gift of faith is given to each of us
so that by word and example,
we may become welcoming witnesses before others.
Allow the dazzling light and healing presence of Christ to shine brightly through your life.
In that way, all those who come in contact with you will discover
God's loving kindness.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7:14

The collection for Sunday, March 3, 2024, was $7406.22. The budgeted amount was $8500.

It doesn't take a lot to remember God in your everyday activities. By setting aside a small offering, you are showing God that you understand that your wealth is all possible thanks to His grace. Even the smallest offerings honor God and show Him that you acknowledge His guidance in your day-to-day life. After all, we enjoy the fruits of the kingdom of God.

Stations of the Cross will be held in the Chapel at 7:00 PM every Friday during Lent. All are encouraged to take part in this Lenten Devotion.

Dining for Dollars at the Marlton Outback Tuesday, March 12, 2024 from 11AM—9:30 PM
15% of your check will be donated to the Knights of Columbus Cherry Hill Council 6173.

Stewardship Corner: 4th Sunday of Lent Grateful Stewards

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...” - JOHN 3:16

Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given to us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but He does ask us to live Stewardship being grateful and generous with our God-given gifts. That we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.

From the Pastor's Desk
Continuing Our Lenten Journey

Dear Parishioners,

I can't tell you how many times I have said to myself (and sometimes to my parish staff): "I should have been a monk!" For years I have been going to a Trappist monastery for my annual retreat. There I can experience some profound solitude and have quality time to pray, read, write, etc. My time in the desert, so to speak, can also be a time to confront the devil and his temptations, just as Jesus did. However, in the end, I must return back to the parish and to my priestly duties and routine. After all, I am not a monk.

The season of Lent is an occasion for all of us to go into that spiritual desert to deepen our relationship with God, repent of our sins and to confront the evil (the demons) in our lives. This time should not be business as usual, if we want to grow in holiness and the love of God. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are not just suggestions, but necessary requirements for penance and our spiritual growth.

Many of us start out with good intentions at the beginning of Lent, and then weaken our resolutions and grow less zealous as we move through those long forty days. Let me act as a spiritual coach: Don't give up! Keep going! The Stations of the Cross can certainly be comforting to us, especially when we realize that Jesus fell (at least) three times and still got up and kept going on the road to Calvary. Follow His example.

The 4th Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday) is named for its entrance antiphon reflecting on Isaiah 66: 10-11: "Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast." Laetare means "rejoice" and like its counterpart in Advent, Gaudete Sunday, the priest has the option of wearing rose-colored vestments instead of violet. The change of color is to indicate a sense of hope and joy—anticipation of Easter—during the penitential season. We are now only 21 days away from Easter Sunday!

I have been encouraged by the good number of people who have taken advantage of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (a.k.a., confession) during this time. If you have not, I implore you to seek out the healing power and mercy of Christ waiting there for the repentant sinner. Too often people carry sins around for months, years or even decades (for various reasons) not realizing that Christ came to reconcile us (see 2 Cor. 5: 18-19) with the Father and not condemn us. Yes, we first need to repent and change our sinful ways. But Christ offers us forgiveness and mercy when we do.

Holy Week and Easter focus on the most profound mysteries of our faith: the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord. Please plan to participate in the Masses and services at this sacred time. Holy Thursday emphasizes the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Ministerial Priesthood. Good Friday recalls Jesus' Passion and Death on the Cross for our sins. The celebration of Easter proclaims Christ's Resurrection from the dead and new life for us all!

If we take Lent seriously, if we take our Catholic faith seriously, we are in the best position to deal with the ever-growing hostilities that are present toward Jesus and His Church. He warned us that if they persecuted Him they will persecute us also (see Jn. 15:20). They mocked, rejected, tortured, and killed Jesus even though He came to save us and lead us to His Heavenly Father. Don't ever think that the path ahead will be easy and without a cross. We adore You, O Christ, and we bless You, for by Your Holy Cross You have redeemed the world.

4th Sunday of Lent: Laetare Sunday

In the middle of our Lenten Journey, we have “Laetare” Sunday, a Sunday when we are called to “rejoice” in the Lord, in His “Good News”: “For God so loved the world (you..., me...) that he gave His only Son, so that everyone (you..., me...) who believes in Him... may have Eternal Life (Eternal Joy!). (John 3:16)

‘To believe’ is a freely given gift from God that invites us to put a complete trust and confidence in Him, in His loving project for us. The more we try to live in this abandon in His hands, the more He gives us a deeper faith. With this comes the anticipation of the joy of Jesus’ Resurrection, with the love and the desire to share it with others in our “pilgrimage” toward Easter, toward the ‘Eternal Life’, towards the Eternal Joy promised by Him. This experience a young Italian soccer player, Gianluca Fioretti, has shared, with much serenity, to his brother, before dying at 21: “... after all, we are made for Heaven. Forever. For eternity...”.

May our Blessed Mother Mary teach us to live with a deeper trust and confidence and joy in God as She did.

REMINDEERS:

March 16 (Saturday): 7th grade Pilgrimage to the Cathedral of the “Immaculate Conception”, Camden, N.J. We will leave the parking lot at St. Thomas More by 9:30 AM and be back by 12:30 PM at St. Thomas.

March 17 (Sunday): Confirmation Meeting #3 for 8th grade students and parents, 9:30 to 10:45 am, in the Chapel.

All food collected at St. Thomas More will be donated to the Cherry Hill Food Pantry. The Pantry is asking for donations of: coffee; detergent; toothpaste; cake mix; pasta sauce; and canned fruit cocktail. Thank you. Remember to pick up your bag in the Gathering Space on your way out of Mass!

Your Catholic Ministries Appeal gift helps our young men and our seminarians to become “men of prayer”, helps guide them as they discern if they are called and then helps prepare them to stand “in the person of Christ” and serve their bride, the Church, through their preaching and teaching and most of all by celebrating the Sacraments. Support the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal

What did Father say? Can you hear him? Hearing devices are available for use in church. Please return to an usher at the end of the Mass. All units are sterilized after each use. For more information, call Dom at the Parish Office (856-424-3212).

Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be at the doors of the church NEXT weekend accepting your donations of non-perishable food or money to purchase food. They are asking for: asking for canned vegetables, fruits and, soups; cereals, pasta and tomato sauce; peanut butter and jelly. Thank you for supporting the SVDP in their mission to ‘feed the hungry.’

Eucharistic Revival Quotes from Pope Francis

“We don’t ever thank the Lord enough for the gift he has given us in the Eucharist! It is a very great gift. That is why it is so important to go to Mass on Sunday. Go to Mass not just to pray, but to receive Communion, the bread that is the Body of Jesus Christ, who saves us, forgives us, unites us to the Father. It is a beautiful thing to do! And we go to Mass every Sunday because that is the Resurrection day of the Lord. That is why Sunday is so important to us.” General Audience February 5, 2014

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 10, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 17, 2024 - John 12:20-30

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me."

Commentary:

In today's Gospel Jesus speaks of real resurrection. And he tells his followers that the only way to come to this life of glory is by dying. The image of the grain of wheat offers a powerful example of this reality. A single seed is limited and alone. But if the seed dies to its present state, it will grow into a stalk filled with seeds. The message for us is that the present is good, but because Christ has brought an end to death through his own death and resurrection, we can look forward to a future that will be far more than our limited lives here and now.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "Thirty-eight states treat the killing of an unborn child as a form of homicide. They have what are called "fetal homicide laws." It is illegal to take the life of the unborn if the mother wants the baby, but it is legal to take the life of the unborn if she doesn't. We reject this right to define personhood in the case of Nazi anti-Semitism, Confederate race-based slavery, and Soviet Gulags. When we define the humanness of the unborn by the will of the powerful, we know what we are doing."— John Piper, Theologian, Author, Pastor and Chancellor of Bethlehem College & Seminary

Urge Your U.S. Senator to Pass Bipartisan Anti-Trafficking Legislation

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Migration formally endorsed the bill stating at the time that "this legislation is critical for continuing and bolstering our nation's efforts to eradicate human trafficking and assist human trafficking survivors. Message to Congress: Senator Robert Menendez: (973) 645-3030 Senator Cory Booker: (202) 224-3224

As a Catholic and your constituent, I urge you to take up and support the House-passed Frederick Douglass Trafficking Victims Prevention and Protection Reauthorization Act of 2023 (H.R. 5856), an important, bipartisan bill that will help combat the evil of human trafficking. It is critical that our country continues to combat what Pope Francis has referred to as a "crime against humanity."
