Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Stewardship Family

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.”
(1 JOHN 3:1)

During this Stewardship season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received – being children of God! As God’s children, it’s in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.

From the Pastor's Desk

Holy Family vs. Modern Family

Dear Parishioners,

As believing Christians, we are called to look at the Sacred Scriptures for valuable lessons in living our lives. What do we see in the pages of the Bible when we examine the lives of those comprising the Holy Family—Jesus, Mary and Joseph?

First, we see two particularly faith-filled people more than willing to do God's Will. We hear Mary's often-quoted response to the angel Gabriel: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." (Lk. 1:38) We also see Joseph's obedient reaction to angel of the Lord telling him not to be afraid to take Mary as his wife into his home: "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home." (Mt. 1: 24) Joseph was also obedient in relocating Mary and Jesus to Egypt (Mt. 2:13-14) and in returning them once again to Israel. (Mt. 2: 19-21) As we look further, we see the many difficulties that this couple had to face: pregnancy outside of wedlock (albeit, a miraculous pregnancy without marital relations) (Lk. 1:26 ff), no dignified place to give birth or to live (Lk. 2:7), a threat to the life of the child (Mt. 2:13 ff), substantial distances to travel (Mt. 2:13 & 2:20), and the scare and worry over a lost child (Mt. 2:41 ff). Later, Mary was witness to the brutal torture and death of her Son on the cross (John 19: 25-27). These were not the easiest life experiences to have to face, if you ask me!

Although most details are absent, we can surmise that this family prayed together, went to the synagogue regularly, worked hard and faced the various concerns that go with raising a child in Israel at that particular time.

Contrast this situation with the many bizarre concepts that we have been subjected to in TV sit-coms like Modern Family, Family Guy, The Simpsons or All In the Family, to name just a few. A tagline for Modern Family gives enough information to let us know that we are not dealing with anything resembling a Leave It to Beaver family: "One big (straight, gay, multi-cultural, traditional) happy family." The Simpsons deals with a "dysfunctional family" headed by Homer, the "oafish, unhealthy, beer-loving father" and including Bart "the ten year old underachiever (and proud of it)." One only has to have a brief glimpse of the irreverent humor of creator and comedian Seth MacFarlane, to know that the content of Family Guy is going to be Offensive—with a capital O. Finally, most people see Archie Bunker (of All In the Family) as an icon for the bigoted, questionably-educated, pseudo-conservative male. Not the best examples of family life to be found anywhere around here, unfortunately.

I close with words from a man much holier and more intelligent than I will ever be, Saint John Paul II:

I wish to invoke the protection of the Holy Family of Nazareth.

Through God's mysterious design, it was in that family that the Son of God spent long years of a hidden life. It is therefore the prototype and example for all Christian families. It was unique in the world. Its life was passed in anonymity and silence in a little town in Palestine. It underwent trials of poverty, persecution and exile. It glorified God in an incomparably exalted and pure way. And it will not fail to help Christian families—indeed, all the families in the world—to be faithful to their day-to-day duties, to bear the cares and tribulations of life, to be open and generous to the needs of others, and to fulfill with joy the plan of God in their regard.

St. Joseph was "a just man," a tireless worker, the upright guardian of those entrusted to his care. May he always guard, protect and enlighten families.

May the Virgin Mary, who is the Mother of the Church, also be the Mother of "the Church of the home." Thanks to her motherly aid, may each Christian family really become a "little Church" in which the mystery of the Church of Christ is mirrored and given new life. May she, the Handmaid of the Lord, be an example of humble and generous acceptance of the will of God. May she, the Sorrowful Mother at the foot of the Cross, comfort the sufferings and dry the tears of those in distress because of the difficulties of their families. (Familiaris Consortio, # 86)

The Holy Family, December 29, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for The Epiphany of the Lord, January 5, 2025 - Matthew 2:1-12

“And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the Child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the Child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.”

Commentary:

All of us are following one star or another across our lives. Maybe it's a dream of the person we want to be. Maybe it's the fantasy of a person who will love us the way we are. The star we follow may be fame and fortune, or peace and security. Chances are, we will find the star we are looking for but, in many cases, it won't be what we thought it was and the results may be disappointing. The one star that did not disappoint is the one that led the magi to Jesus. Like most of us traveling in the dark, these men had no idea where their journey would take them or what it might cost once they arrived at their destination. They were prepared to sacrifice wealth, time, and their comfortable security, nonetheless. And when they found their hearts' desire, they were overjoyed at the discovery. Like Moses, they too became radiant at what they saw. We can imagine they took that radiance home with them, so that everyone who saw them wondered at the change.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

EMMANUEL

You have come into our world to make God's presence known as love divine!

Alleluia!

Make my life a sign of the power of your love.

Teach me to welcome all as you should be welcomed.

help me to see everyone as "God is with us!"

St. Thomas More Parish

Friday: Jan. 3, 24 and 31, 2025

Join us as we Pray the Rosary, Lectio Divina, and reflect on themes of faith.

Thanks for your support all year. Here are some highlights:

Plastic Recycling - since May, nearly 2,000 pounds of plastic has not gone into landfills, but been recycled. STM received a free beautiful bench at the church entrance and the Franciscan Sisters will soon receive a bench.

Angel Tree - Christmas gifts to 19 children who have an incarcerated parent plus gift cards to their caregivers.

Christmas Food from Around the World - 24 chefs treated us with delicious food while we learned about the culture and tradition of others' Christmas celebrations.

Refugees & Immigrants - This year our Society of St. Vincent de Paul, through parishioner generosity, assisted 10 refugee or asylum-seeking families with over $4,000 of food related items.

Catholic Charities - the new Executive Director visited St. Thomas More and presented an overview of Catholic Charities' programs and services and how they serve the vulnerable in South Jersey and opportunities for volunteers to get involved.

Homeless - $620 to support Joseph's House in Camden and their fight to end homelessness, tee shirts to St. Francis Ministries in Kensington for the homeless.

Environment & Social Justice - two movie screenings. We learned how to use the leaves from our property to be an environmentally friendly and cost effective mulching solution.

Thanks to Sister Ann who founded Faith & Justice five years ago. We wish her the best in her retirement.
