PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Warmly Welcomed

You're warmly welcomed to our church,
We will love to see you here
We want you to know the love of God
And feel His presence near
For you are so special to the Lord
And special to us, too,
For your life has significance,
And there's purpose in what you do.

Nationwide Prayer Vigil for Life begins Thursday, January 21st and runs through Friday, January 29th.

This year, for the first time ever, bishops in dioceses across the country will be taking turns leading live-streamed televised Holy Hours every hour through the all night vigil, broadcast on the USCCB's website. The vigil will begin with a live broadcast at 8:00 PM Thursday, January 28 from the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D. C., with a rosary followed by Mass opening the National Prayer Vigil for Life. After the Mass, holy hours will be led by bishops from various dioceses around the country throughout the night. The vigil concludes at 8:00 AM Friday, January 29th with Mass celebrated by Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore.

"Now, more than ever, our nation is in need of prayer for the protection of the unborn and the dignity of all human life," said Archbishop Naumann. "I am happy to be joined by bishops in dioceses across the country who are hosting pro-life events, including during the overnight hours of Eucharistic Adoration. I invite all Catholics to spend time with Our Lord and join in this nationwide vigil for life."

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land. 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Finding Stewardship

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - JOHN 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, to live your Stewardship, by asking the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

From the Pastor's Desk One (Divided) Nation Under God

Dear Parishioners,

Writing my column this week is particularly challenging. The elections are over and we await the inauguration of our new president. I pray for him and for our nation. We all should do the same. However, I am not naive to the fact that our nation is not united in thought, principles, and vision or even in the level of trust and respect that we have for government, the press, social media or even each other.

Yet, every day when I wake up, of this I can be assured: God will still be God and Jesus Christ is still King of the Universe.

I have good reason to believe our divided nation will not suddenly come together and unite in a euphoric Kumbaya moment. We will still have an astronomical national debt. Laws will exist that longstanding Catholic Church teaching (and I) will continue to oppose (abortion and same-sex marriage being two of the most prominent). The inner cities as well as suburbia will continue to encounter their many economic and social problems well into the foreseeable future. As long as there is a market for them, various illegal (and some legal) drugs will indiscriminately infest our nation. Prejudice will not magically disappear. Some form of government gridlock will exist. The future funding of programs such as Social Security and Medicare will once again be debated, but probably not permanently fixed. What about the future of healthcare? In many instances the can will be kicked down the road for as long as possible. Perhaps, we may see some radical and unexpected changes. Only God knows the entire future and for His help we must continually, emphatically pray.

Will life here in the USA radically change after this election? Will the many campaign promises and slogans [Build Back Better or Make (Keep) America Great Again] really effect the change they desire by the mere rhetoric? Much damage has been done that, in effect, seriously divided rather than united us as a nation. I am not holding my breath waiting for any immediate solution or quick fix.

From a Church perspective, will the election of a new “Catholic” President become some amazing motivating factor causing more people to attend Mass each week? Will the sacredness of every human life be protected and the sanctity of traditional marriage suddenly reappear? Will I see more people turning to God and a radical conversion of lives? I have no delusions that the victor of this year’s election is some national messiah. Sorry. Both major candidates are unfortunately flawed, sinful men. I am just glad that the campaigning is finally over.

Four years ago (2016), Carl Anderson, the Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus proposed six concrete ideas for us as Catholics to lead the way towards unity in our nation after the last election. I once again present them here for your consideration:

First, he said, is “the renewal of parish life as a true Eucharistic community,” with a greater appreciation for the Eucharist as the source and summit of unity, charity and Christian life.

Next, a “renewed evangelization of family life” is needed, “centered upon the calling of every Catholic family to be a domestic church which, in solidarity with other families, would be a source of unity, charity and reconciliation.”

In addition, Anderson said, Catholics should grow in their devotion to Mary as the Patroness of the U.S., seeing in her a model of “understanding our responsibilities toward our neighbors and for the common good as citizens.”

Also necessary is a “deeper understanding of those moral principles and issues that are non-negotiable for us as a faith community,” which leads to a deeper understanding and application of the Church’s Social Doctrine.

A greater commitment to authentic Catholic education that forms the entire person at every academic level is also important for Catholic identity, he said.

Finally, he concluded, the Church in the U.S. needs “a greater appreciation of the office of bishop as the source of unity for the local church” and deeper communication among clergy, religious and laity.

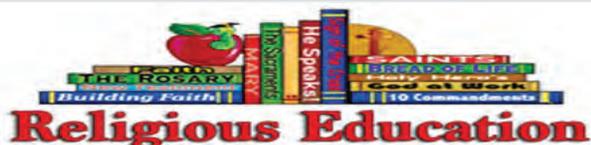

Please continue to pray fervently for our nation! We still have turbulent times ahead. I am willing to say it is sadly inevitable.

“Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? And whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one Spirit with him. Avoid immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.”

Our efforts in the religious education/formation of our children are to affirm and promote the value of each human person. Thus, we enhance in the children a sense of who they are as God’s creature, created by HIM in his own image and likeness. We have God’s image in being spiritual beings; we have his likeness in the gifts of our intellect that we have been endowed from our conception. Understanding this truth, “being made by God in his own image and likeness” calls for great humility. We quickly realize that, without GOD and our intellect, we can do nothing. All our smarts are dependent on GOD’S own presence in US. As simple as this thought may appear at first, it may become a hindrance if we put God aside and become centered on ourselves. To empower our children in the faith is to teach them the truth about GOD and all that our FAITH holds as part of its core beliefs. In our FAITH we find all the tools needed to live a good life, to become accomplished human beings and fulfill God’s own destiny for each of us. As educators of our children and formators in their faith, we can’t give what we don’t have. So parents and all caring adults need to find ways to enrich their faith and relationship with GOD, enhancing that wonderful gift of ‘ME HAVING BEING CREATED IN GOD’S IMAGE AND LIKENESS’.

Prayer for Yourself When Your Loved One is Addicted

Holy Spirit, source of all hope hear my cry of helplessness in _____’s addiction.

You are my helper, my comforter, and my strength. Through your grace I can accomplish what I alone cannot. (John 14:26)

Grant me the gifts of your most holy presence, so that I may:

Be joyful when I am sad and alone, and love when I feel ashamed and guilty.

Fill me with the fire of your holiness, and let your peace absorb all my fears and worries.

When I feel agitated and anxious and want to blame my self or others, grant me your gifts of patience, gentleness, and self-control.

Extend to me your gifts of kindness and goodness when I am resentful and angry.

Help me to remain faithful if I experience doubt in these difficult times, and be mindful of your Spirit dwelling with me and in me. (Gal. 5: 22-23, John 14: 15-17)

Empower me. Inspire me.

Enlighten me. Transform me.

I place my trust in you.

Amen.

Sr. Claire Sullivan sends her thanks to St. Thomas More Parish for the generous support of gift cards for her Camden families during the Christmas Season. They helped to put food on tables and warm clothing on backs of many. May you be blessed for your concern. Thank you. Lois Udicious

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JANUARY 17, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 24, 2021 - Mark 1:14-20

Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the Gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel."

Commentary: Repent and believe...what do these words really mean? Repent actually is a call to change, a willingness to change my thoughts and ways to those of God. Sometimes change is radical as we see with the disciples who leave their fishing boats and follow Jesus. More often than not, modest changes are more likely, that is, turning our little everyday behaviors, such as impatience, disrespect, gossiping or losing my temper to the more God-like behaviors of patience, respect, holding my tongue and my outbursts. These changes, radical or modest, are evidence of my belief in the Gospel of God, where the final answer is "love" and the gift I receive is God's presence, with me, for me and through me.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE Corner: "There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image." United States Conference of Catholic Bishops "Living the Gospel of Life," © 1998

New Jersey Catholic Conference A Call for Prayer & Fasting to End Abortion January 22, 2021

We, the Catholic Bishops of New Jersey, ask Catholics and people of good will to join us on Friday, January 22, 2021, the 48th anniversary of Roe Vs. Wade, in a Day of Prayer and Fasting to end abortion.

As we mark this tragic event in our nation's history, we remember the millions of lives lost to abortion [60 + million] and pray for the mothers and fathers left to suffer the tragic effects.

The Catholic Church is committed to protecting all life from conception to natural death. We will work vigorously to ensure the laws of our state and country protect and defend the intrinsic dignity of all people. We humbly implore our Blessed Mother under her title of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, and Protectress of the Unborn, to intercede on our behalf that these efforts to end abortion are guided by mercy, compassion and, above all, charity.

Signed by the Bishops of New Jersey
