SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT, FEBRUARY 28, 2021

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:50 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish office to register. Registration forms are available on our Web Site.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

Let HIS Light Shine

Nobody is a Christian for oneself alone. The gift of faith is given to each of us so that by word and example we may become witnesses before others. Allow the dazzling light and healing presence of Christ to shine brightly through your life. In that way, all those whom come in contact with you will discover the loving kindness of God.

A Prayer for Lent

O Gracious Master, infuse in our hearts the spotless light of Your Divine Wisdom and open the eyes of our mind that we may understand the teachings of Your Gospel. Instill in us the desire to lead a spiritual life, both thinking and doing everything to please You. For You, O Christ, our God, are the enlightenment of our souls and bodies; and to You we render glory, together with Your eternal Father, and with Your all Holy, life-creating Spirit, now and forever. Amen

“Journeying Through Grief”

St. Thomas More Ministry of Consolation

If you have experienced the recent death of a loved one, come find comfort from others who are also dealing with grief. We are continuing our meetings via Zoom with telephone call-ins as an option. Please Contact Ann Marie Lento: 856-344-7454; Marian Kapischke: 856-424-2053 helloducks@verizon.net; Jon Lisitski: 856:210-6466.

Stewardship Calling

“‘Here I am!’ he answered.” - GENESIS 22:11

It is easy to say, “Here I am, Lord,” when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say “Here I am, Lord,” when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it’s not convenient for us. Stewardship is not always easy. There will be times when it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

From the Pastor's Desk

What Are You Giving Up for Lent?

Dear Parishioners,

“What are you giving up for Lent?”

I have been asked this question many times in my life. I think very carefully before I respond. An easy answer would be to say something like chocolate, desserts or soda. Case closed. Many would be satisfied with this response. In my opinion, however, it seems that we need to look beyond this question to something deeper and more profound: How can I be changed for the better by my observance of Lent?

The Gospel reading of Ash Wednesday (Mt. 6:1-6, 16-18) reminds us of three traditional practices of Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Lent should be a time for increased prayer. When I first began seeking his direction and guidance, my spiritual director at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary asked me to describe for him how I pray. For most people, including me, this is a very personal request. That's between God and me! You are now invading my personal space!

How do I pray? (I will reluctantly let you have a glimpse at my inner sanctuary. Please keep this between you and me!)

It depends. Some elements are part of my daily routine. My most important prayer each day is the Mass. I deliberately try to pray the Mass. Over time Mass can sometimes become very routine for priests (and laity alike). Priests (and laity) can consciously or unconsciously just go through the motions and simply read the words that are printed in the Roman Missal. To pray the Mass is deliberate and intentional. It involves an act of the will and a conscious effort. It requires concentration.

I also pray my Liturgy of the Hours—a series of psalms, Scripture readings, intercessions and formal prayers—intended to sanctify the various hours of the day. Additionally, my personal goal is to include a rosary, some spiritual reading, and time (usually a holy hour) before the Blessed Sacrament each day. At various times in my life I have been drawn to centering prayer (a doorway to contemplation), charismatic prayer, devotional prayer (novenas, Stations of the Cross, rosary, etc.), intercessory prayer, meditation, and to whatever else the Holy Spirit leads me at any given time. Frequently I talk to God from the heart. Prayer is the means by which I hope to seek out God's will, to know Him better and to be united with Him one day. Increasingly, it has become for me a time to be quiet and simply to listen to God. Despite all of the busyness of life, Lent should include time for increased prayer.

Fasting involves some self-denial—food or otherwise. In addition to not eating certain items that we may enjoy, we can “give up” watching TV, frivolous time on the computer, unnecessary shopping, music in the car and various other things that not only teach us some discipline and self-sacrifice but may free us up for more time for God and prayer. Two official fast days (from food) during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Almsgiving is a reminder for all of us to be charitable—with our money, of course—but also with our talents and with our time. What we do not spend frivolously on shopping or on ourselves, we can give to a personal charity. What we save by eating a simple meal, we can use to send a gift or flowers to an elderly homebound person to let him or her know that he or she is still loved. We can also volunteer our time on behalf of our church, in some civic organization, with a youth group or for some charitable cause. We can use the skills of our profession or trade pro bono.

What am I giving up for Lent this year?

This question is much too simplistic. (And you might be sorry that you asked me!)

The Habit – Daily Reflection from Matthew Kelly, 2/21 Dynamic Catholic – “If you ask people what are the most important habits in your life or what is the most important habit in your life, you hear all sorts of things. Some people say working out. Some people say reading. Some people say working hard. Some people say spending time with their significant other or spending time with their children, with their families. You hear lots of different things. But these are not life's essential habit. And life's essential habit makes all of these habits better. Life's essential habit elevates everything. So what is life's essential habit? Life's essential habit... life's essential daily habit is prayer, is spending time in prayer. The tragic thing is most of us have never been taught how to pray. We talk a lot about prayer at church. We talk a lot about prayer in Christian circles. But most of us have never really been taught how to pray. The question I lay before you today is: have you ever really been taught how to pray? And before you answer it, I want you to really think about it. I want you to really think about it. Have you ever really been taught how to have an intimate relationship with God? How to really talk to God? How to have the type of relationship with God where on one day in some place, you might hear God laugh? Have you ever been taught to pray like that? The tragic thing is most of us have not. And while that is tragic, the beautiful thing about that tragedy is that it means that there's still a whole world of opportunity before you. And so this journey we're making together is about learning how to pray, learning how to establish life's essential daily habit at the center of our lives—not on the periphery of our lives, not something we do at the end of the day if we feel like it or we have time to do, but something that becomes a sacred priority in our day for however much time we decide to commit to it. For many, many years, I've been challenging people, encouraging people just to start with 10 minutes a day. Set aside 10 minutes a day. This habit will change your life. →

Mission Schedule:

9:00 AM Mass followed by Conference

7:00 PM Scripture Service and Conference

All Conferences in Parish Church

7:00 PM Service will be Live-Streamed on St. Thomas More Facebook Page

We live in a noisy, busy, crazy world. Sometimes people ask me, "Why do you pray?" I pray because I don't know how people can live out there in the crazy, noisy, busy world without a little bit of silence and solitude each day to focus their lives, to center their lives, to re-establish what matters most, what matters least, so that we can go out into the world with clarity—clarity about who we are and what we're here for. And so while there are many ways to feed your soul, the way I really want to challenge you to focus on here in these days is the habit of daily prayer.”

FACES OF HOPE

How does the House of Charity make a difference?
"People need to understand that their donations to the House of Charity— Bishop's Annual Appeal support programs which aim to evangelize youth and young adults within our community and prepare them for leadership roles in the church. Your support is an investment in their future." Estrelita Martinez, Catholic Millennial Ministry.

Where do you see hope?
"I see hope in the faces of my ESL (English as a Second Language) students. Learning a new language is an act of hope, hope in a better future. This program would not be possible without the support of those who contribute to the House of Charity— Bishop's Annual Appeal." Vincent Mancuso, Coordinator of the English Learning center at Catholic Charities.

Pledge Cards are available at the exit doors of the Church.

St. Thomas More Parish goal for 2021 is $89,700. We have received $15, 430.00 in donations and pledges from 46 donors. This is 17.27% of our goal. With your help, we can do this! We thank all in advance for your contributions.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT, FEBRUARY 28, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Lent, March 7, 2021 - John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves He said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture: "Zeal for your house will consume me."

Commentary:

The dramatic action of Jesus—driving out the merchants and money changers—is not the most shocking feature of this Sunday's Gospel. Not only does Jesus cleanse the Temple, He replaces it. The place of God's presence among people is no longer a building but the "temple of His Body." In Jesus we encounter the living God.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER: "If a physician presumes to take into consideration in his work whether life has value or not, the consequences are boundless and the physician becomes the most dangerous man in the state."—Dr. Christoph Hufeland, Germany, 1762-1836

Covid- 19 & Domestic Violence

According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV), "domestic violence is prevalent in every community, and affects all people regardless of age, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality. Physical violence is often accompanied by emotionally abusive and controlling behavior as part of a much larger systematic pattern of dominance and control. Domestic violence can result in physical injury, psychological trauma, and even death. The devastating consequences of domestic violence can cross generations and last a lifetime.

....Complying with the 'stay-at-home' mandate and remaining in place poses a risk. Being closed in with someone who is abusive, whether emotionally or physically, is extremely difficult.
