Stewardship Corner: 3rd Sunday in Lent

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again." John 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us for long. When we build our lives around material possessions, we always want more. True Joy and Peace only come when we follow Jesus; when we become His Stewards, we become more

"God-centered" and less "self-centered."

The Great Hymn of Saint Patrick

In the morning we will reflect on the beautiful breastplate prayer attributed to St. Patrick. This prayer outlines Saint Patrick's spirituality and his keen awareness of the battle between good and evil. In the afternoon we will enjoy a lite lunch and the Emerald Isle Irish Step-dancers.

God's loving concern for me is ongoing and never missing its target "ME". It began at MY conception and will last through eternity. GOD simply loves ME unconditionally. But my response to God's unconditional love is not "unconditional" because I place all of my own conditions and thus "this tremendous love does not bear the fruit it is meant to bear".

Here is Morning prayer to help ME surrender to God, as fully as I can each day. (Drawn from a commentary on the book of Deuteronomy)

"Father in heaven, thank you for this new day. I know that your deeply embedded love is thoroughly in my heart and soul, within the fibers and muscles of my entire being. May it not become lost in the shadows and abyss of my existence. Today, hour by hour, in all circumstances I will find myself, with friends and enemies, may my heart beat with yours so that my emotions, words and actions will be reflecting YOU, who are so thoroughly a part of ME. May JESUS be my source of courage and strength. AMEN"

Let us help our children pray in this way; they can amaze us at what they can share.

Meet Yvone

Hospitality Prayer
Lord Jesus, you welcomed all who came into your presence. May I reflect that same spirit through this ministry of hospitality. May your light shine in my heart this day. Remove from me anything that would stand in the way of radiating your presence.
As people enter this Church to worship and praise You, may they hear your voice in my words and see your love in my actions. May my "welcome" reflect our joy at their presence and may my "good-bye" encourage them to return soon.
I thank you for the opportunity to serve you and ask your blessing upon all my efforts. I ask this through our God who is the giver of all gifts. Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT, MARCH 15, 2020

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 22, 2020 - John 9:1-41

Jesus said to the man once blind, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" The man answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?: Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." The man said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshipped him. Then Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see, might see, and those who do see, might become blind."

Commentary:

It's no crime to wake up one day and realize you've been oblivious to a great truth about yourself. What IS a crime is never to wake up and make that discovery. The wise folks we know got that way by walking a while on the path of humility, encountering brutal truths about themselves all along the way. They've confronted their own blindness many times, and surrendered to the sometimes-painful procedure of having their sight restored again and again. Being human implies a limited perspective. We don't see perfectly, and we have to keep working at clarifying our vision. Honest relationships assist that process naturally. So does surrendering to the words of Scripture and the sacraments most deliberately. Confession helps. The only thing that harms us, frankly, is refusing to see.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Former Planned Parenthood clinic director Abby Johnson said, "I get asked this question a lot. Am I really Pro-life? Am I against abortion in all circumstances? Yes. Do I believe there are any exceptions for abortion? No. Do you want to make abortion illegal? Yes." How about you? Join Pro-life today.

Happy 90th Birthday Bill Vigrass.
