Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

When Fearful

Lord, we ask you to deliver us from:
fear of the unknown future;
from fear of failure;
from fear of poverty;
from fear of bereavement;
from fear of loneliness;
From fear of sickness and pain;
from fear of age;
and from fear of death.

Help us, Father, by your grace to always welcome you with love above all. Fill our hearts with cheerful courage and loving trust in you.

Through our Lord and Master,
Jesus Christ. Amen

Stewardship Corner: 3rd Sunday of Easter Stewardship Opportunity

“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ But they were startled and frightened...” - LUKE 24:36-37

Throughout the day, we have the Stewardship opportunity to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life and not a “self-centered” life.

From the Pastor's Desk Life's a Beach!

Dear Parishioners,

By the time you read this message, I will back from my all-too-brief vacation.

Being raised in Wildwood— by –the-Sea, I grew up loving the beach and boardwalk. I still like to soak in the sun when I am able, although I get continual warnings from my skin doctor to “be sure to use your sun-block!” I spent most of this vacation time on the beach.

While sitting under my umbrella some years ago, a group of teens camped out behind me. They were playing with their electronic devices and the “music” was blaring quite loudly. I couldn’t help but hear the lyrics (or at least some of the choice words)! Emanating from what appeared to be some lyric of rap “music”, I heard the notorious N-word at least 25 times or more in the various songs being shouted, as well as a few select 4-letter words interspersed continually. I would be hard pressed to call any of it music. It was a gross insult and assault to any person’s sensibilities.

As the day progressed, I saw the same group drinking beer and passing around a funny looking cigarette while swimming in the water. None of them appeared to be over 18 years old! Oh, how I worry about today’s youth!

When I thought about the various matters troubling today’s young people, I also realized that my generation had its own problems. With the drinking age at 18 at the time, alcohol was easily accessible (through many of the seniors) at the high school level. The combination of drinking and teenagers was ultimately bad news. Drugs were starting to be more prevalent and accessible. Add to it all the growth of a free-love society and the path to the future became an even more destructive one!

Today the problems seem to start to be grave at an even younger age. Blame it on the breakup of the family, lack of parental supervision, the internet, the availability of drugs and alcohol, the decline of religious practice and morality, etc., and I wonder what the world will look like in 10 or 20 years from now. They say that the pendulum swings back and forth, I sure hope, for humanity’s sake, that it will reverse course and soon be headed in the other direction.

When St. Paul came to Corinth, it was a notorious seaport filled with vice. When he went to Rome, he had to face the immorality and corruption within the Roman Empire. All the cities he visited had their own particular problems and degrees of sinful behavior. To the people of Ephesus he wrote:

So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma. Immorality or any impurity or greed must not even be mentioned among you as is fitting among holy ones, no obscenity or suggestive talk, which is out of place, but instead, thanksgiving. Be sure of this, that no immoral or impure or greedy person, that is, an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of God. (Eph. 5: 1-5)

I hope and pray that we all desire to have some inheritance in the Kingdom of God. This means that we must strive continually to conform our lives to the teaching of Sacred Scriptures. It is important that this message gets out to everyone, including (and especially) our youth.

Pray for them.

The miracle of the Eucharist is a mystery, something that human reason and intelligence can never fully grasp. However, our Catholic faith is a reasonable one, and we can't simply leave this mystery a complete mystery; we have to do our best to make sense of it, albeit incompletely. This is why transubstantiation is such an important term for us to understand in explaining to others what we believe about the Eucharist. Transubstantiation is a Scholastic term that attempts to explain how bread and wine can become the body and blood of the Lord without losing their exterior appearance. The Council of Trent declared: "Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation." (CCC 1376) In order to understand what all of this means, we need to understand the medieval concepts of accidents and substance. Accidents are the exterior, physical parts or qualities of something (like the fingers, hair and feet of a person). Substance is the eternal invisible quality of something (human being). Think of the life of a human person: Our exterior dimensions are in constant flux; we all look much different now than when we were born. What remains unchanged is who we are at our core — a distinct human being. In other words, our accidents change, but our substance remains the same. With the Eucharist, it's just the opposite. While the accidents of the bread and wine (taste, texture, appearance) do not change, the substance (the essential "bread-ness" and "wine-ness") does change. It still looks, feels and tastes like bread and wine, but it has truly become Jesus. This is what the Catholic Church means by transubstantiation. At the end of the day, transubstantiation is a philosophical term used by the church to describe a miracle, the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the apostles, we have faith in the Lord's words, that he meant what he said; but, also like the apostles, we will never fully understand those words.

The Women's Club will be praying the rosary in church on Thursday, April 22nd at 3:00 PM.

All are welcome to join us to pray for peace and harmony in the world.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER, APRIL 18, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Fourth Sunday of Easter, April 25, 2021- John 10:11-18

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd."

Commentary:

Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd in today's gospel. He knows his sheep by name; he knows their habits and traits. His sheep know him. His love for them is so great that he freely lays down his life for them. People who know each other in the deep way described in this passage share their thoughts, feelings and will. They become one heart and one mind. Each has no life without the other. Jesus and his Father know each other in that way. Now Jesus tells his followers that they too have a share in this depth and intimacy.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER: In January of 1973 the Supreme Court immorally and illegally created law. (The court's job is to rule on existing law not to create law.) As an example, the Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton cases that have resulted in the decriminalized murder of 64 million (that is 64,000,000) babies in the womb by surgical abortion and other means. After 48 years isn't it time for the evil of abortion on demand to end?

The journey of Catholic life continually prepares you for eternal life with the Lord. In your daily lives, you share your faith with your loved ones. By pre-planning your Catholic burial, you continue sharing your faith with your family. In addition, many benefits come with pre-planning such as:
