FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, APRIL 25, 2021

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:50 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish office to register. Registration forms are available on our Web Site.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

I welcome everything that comes to me today because I know it's for my healing. I welcome all thoughts, feelings, emotions, persons, situations, and conditions. I let go of my desire for power and control. I let go of my desire for affection, esteem, approval, and pleasure. I let go of my desire to change any situation, condition, person or myself. I open my heart to the love and presence of God and God's action within.

Amen.

“Journeying Through Grief”

St. Thomas More Ministry of Consolation

If you have experienced a recent death of a loved one, come find comfort from others who are also dealing with grief. We are continuing our meetings via Zoom with telephone call-ins as an option. Please Contact Ann Marie Lento: 856-344-7454; Marian Kapischke: 856-424-2053 helloducks@verizon.net; Jon Lisitski: 856:210-6466.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 4th Sunday of Easter Stewardship Listening

“I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice.”

- JOHN 10:14-16

When we pray, as Stewards, do we only ask Jesus for the things that we want? Do we ever ask Him what He wants from us? How do we listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in “quiet whispers” that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

From the Pastor's Desk

“Did You Ever Think About Becoming a Priest?”

Dear Parishioners,

I can remember that it was my junior year of high school. I was standing with some of my friends in the cafeteria of Wildwood Catholic High School during a school dance. I was checking out the girls there in the rather dark setting, trying to get up the courage (because I was so shy) to ask one of them to dance.

Then along comes this priest. He was new to the school, not ordained for too long, and was assigned to teach my theology class.

“Did you ever think about becoming a priest?”

He asked me that question. It still resonates in my mind. What should I say?

Maybe I was unusual, but my prayer life at that time included a prayer for a good wife. I prayed that God would give me the wife that was best suited for me and that we would be happy together. It's funny how I can remember quite clearly how I regularly prayed that particular request.

“Yes, Father, I've thought about it but I'm not sure that it's right for me.” It seemed to be a good enough response to get him to go away and let me resume what I was doing—at least for the time being.

After nearly 34 years of ministry as a diocesan priest, I realize clearly that Christ answered my prayer and gave me the best bride that He possibly could—His own spouse, the Church. I can honestly say that I am truly grateful that God called me to be His priest and for the gift of the ordained, ministerial Priesthood.

On this 4th Sunday of Easter, Good Shepherd Sunday, Bishop Sullivan asked us to speak about and to encourage vocations to the diocesan priesthood. Parishioners are asked to pray specifically for vocations to the diocesan priesthood. Please take the time to do so every day.

The privilege to offer Mass daily, to bring healing and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, to anoint the sick, to baptize, to teach and preach the Catholic faith, to act in the person of Christ in the sacraments and so many other blessings have humbled me and reminded me of God's great love and mercy for His people.

“The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.” Luke 10:2

I don't believe that God ever stopped calling young men to be His priests. God remains faithful from age to age. Pray that those who are called by God can hear and discern “the call” and have the courage to respond to it.

Fr. Ed Namiotka

We are in the final stages of preparation for two groups of children to receive either the Sacrament of Communion or the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Throughout the years of preparation, we have been loyal, with our hearts in the right place. Our prayers were fervent and God knows. Yet we ask ourselves, “How many of them will continue to act on the eagerness of this special day and remain faithful to our FAITH? Especially the Eucharist. ...” There is no substitute for Jesus in the Eucharist. Yet, what is often being echoed by the younger generations, is that “they are indeed spiritual but not religious.” “They can be good people without going to church.” “God loves them whether they go to Mass or not.” How do we make sense out of these comments? There is no magic answer or solution. Good example begins in the home where children learn that FAITH is not just a personal matter, but it embraces all of our lives and reaches out to embrace everyone. It has been said that “FAITH is caught, rather than taught.”

In that case, how contagious is our FAITH that our children and others would actually ‘catch it?’

MOTHER’S DAY CARDS & REMEMBRANCES

During the month of May the parish will remember all the mothers and grandmothers, living and deceased, of our parishioners. If you would like your mother or grandmother remembered in this special manner, please return a Mother’s Day envelope sent along with your weekly collection envelopes. Extra envelopes are available in the gathering space or parish office. Mother’s Day cards are also available at the exit doors which can be sent to your mother telling her that she will be remembered at the Masses at St. Thomas More

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

"We all have a vocation and we all have a role to play. My formation in the diaconate program has brought me close to the charitable programs of the House of Charity. It puts the resources in our hands to help those who need it the most." – Dave Harkins, Newly Ordained Deacon

Your House of Charity gift helps our young men and our seminarians to become "men of prayer", helps guide them as they discern if they are called and then helps prepare them to stand "in the person of Christ" and serve their bride, the Church, through their preaching and teaching and most of all by celebrating the Sacraments.

We are all Faces of Hope.

Please let us know if you have made your contributions directly to the Diocese or online so we may include your donation in our total.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, APRIL 25, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Fourth Sunday of Easter, April 25, 2021- John 10:11-18

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd."

Commentary:

Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd in today's gospel. He knows his sheep by name; he knows their habits and traits. His sheep know him. His love for them is so great that he freely lays down his life for them. People who know each other in the deep way described in this passage share their thoughts, feelings and will. They become one heart and one mind. Each has no life without the other. Jesus and his Father know each other in that way. Now Jesus tells his followers that they too have a share in this depth and intimacy.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER: - Is the abortion rate going down? Society is pushing for more promiscuity which means more pregnancies. More women are having chemical abortions by various means. The surgical abortions may be down; however, there are more abortions. For the love of God and His babies, choose life!

"Today, a jury found Derek Chauvin guilty of the murder of George Floyd. As we receive this result, we recall that God is the source of all justice, love, and mercy. The death of George Floyd highlighted and amplified the deep need to see the sacredness in all people, but especially those who have been historically oppressed.

The events following George Floyd's death also highlighted the urgent need for racial healing and reconciliation. Let us pray that, through the revelation of so much pain and sadness, God strengthens us to cleanse our land of the evil of racism.

Let us not lose the opportunity to pray that the Holy Spirit falls like a flood on our land again providing us with spiritual, emotional, and physical healing, as well as new ways to teach, preach, and model the Gospel message in how we treat each other."

Banns of Ordination to the Diaconate

The Most Reverend Dennis J. Sullivan, D.D., announces that he intends to ordain Mr. Christopher Myers, Mr. Logan Nilsen, Mr. Cesar Serrano Pirateque and Mr. Stephen Robbins to the Sacred Order of Deacon on Saturday, the 15th day of May 2021 at the Church of St. Agnes, Our Lady of Hope Parish in Blackwood, New Jersey.

The faithful of the Diocese of Camden are asked to pray for these men and for the young men of their parish who are being called by God to service in the Church. At the same time, the faithful are obliged to reveal impediments to sacred orders, if they know of any, by contacting their pastor before the ordination in accord with the norms of cc. 1043 and 1051.2 of the Code of Canon Law.

Mary Immaculate, patroness of the Diocese of Camden, intercede for these men and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood here in South Jersey.
