Bans of Ordination to the Priesthood

The Most Reverend Dennis J. Sullivan, D.D., announces that he intends to ordain Mr. Steven Bertozzi, and Mr. Carlo Santa Teresa to the Sacred Order of Presbyter on Saturday, the 22nd day of May, 2021 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Mary Mother of Mercy Parish in Glassboro, New Jersey.

The faithful of the Diocese of Camden are asked to pray for these men and for the young men of their parish who are being called by God to service in the Church. At the same time, the faithful are obliged to reveal impediments to sacred orders, if they know of any, by contacting their pastor before the ordination in accord with the norms of cc. 1043 and 1051.2 of the Code of Canon Law.

Mary Immaculate, patroness of the Diocese of Camden, intercede for these men and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood here in South Jersey.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: Ascension of Our Lord Stewardship Strong

“Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.” 1st John 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be Stewardship strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

From the Pastor's Desk

Preparing for the Holy Spirit

Dear Parishioners,

After His Resurrection, Jesus appeared to His disciples and told them: “. . . You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” (Acts 1:8)

As Christians, we first received the Holy Spirit when we were baptized. In Jerusalem, St. Peter declared to the crowd: "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2:38) St. Paul also reminds us: “Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?” (1 Cor. 6:19)

In Confirmation, the same Holy Spirit is once again given to us. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church: “It is evident from its celebration that the effect of the sacrament of Confirmation is the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost.” (#1302)

In Jerusalem after Jesus' Ascension, the apostles were assembled in the upper room as a community. They remained there in prayer together with Mary, the mother of Jesus, in preparation for the descent of the Holy Spirit upon them at Pentecost. (See Acts 1:13-14)

Each year we should prepare similarly as we approach Pentecost Sunday. The idea of a novena—nine consecutive days of prayer—took place in the early Church between Ascension Thursday and Pentecost Sunday. We should pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon ourselves, our families, our parish, the Church, our nation, and our entire world. We need the Holy Spirit to guide us, to strengthen us, to protect us and to fill us with His love.

Pray for the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit to fill your lives. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (See Isaiah 11:2) are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. The fruits of the Holy Spirit, according to the Catechism (#1832), are “perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them: ‘charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity.’” (Gal. 5:22-23)

Remember that the Holy Spirit is a Person—the third Person of the Blessed Trinity. Sometimes the limited images (tongues of fire, a dove, etc.) used to describe this mysterious Person may restrict our thinking and understanding. We should strive to know and truly love this mysterious Person. There should be a certain intimate relationship that we establish with the Holy Spirit through prayer.

Begin praying that the Holy Spirit fills the hearts of all believers and enkindles in them the fire of His love more fully!

“Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.” These are the words that begin the Gospel reading for today, Solemnity of the Ascension of Our Lord. What can we proclaim if we don’t know our faith and if we lack the enthusiasm for it? What if our basket of knowledge is full of “me, myself and I”, rather than the message of JESUS? As St. Francis of Assisi would say: “We need to follow our Rule, “Gospel” without personal interpretation”. It means we need to take it at face value. In spite of our agonizing over COVID19, we may take the challenge as an opportunity to plan for ourselves a new era of enthusiasm and faithfulness to the GOSPEL. How can we do that? By an examination of our life before, during and after COVID19.

Here is a series of reflective questions to help us turn our corner to a new future, one that we may take fresh from the hands of GOD. Apply the questions to:

My relationship with myself; my relationship with God; my relationship with my family; my relationship with the world. In so doing, also consider what a wise man said:

“There is a very fine line between cowardice and bravery; choose bravery!”

- * What are some things I need to let go of that were burdensome and are of no value any longer or may hold me hostage?
- *What are some things that I need to change in my life and relationship with myself, God, my family and others?
- *What are some new and positive steps I can definitely take responsibility for as I walk on to the new and uncharted territory before me?

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD, MAY 16, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Pentecost Sunday, May 23, 20121- John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Commentary:

Pentecost has popularly and rightly been called the "Birthday of the Church." We greatly reduce the mystery of God's presence, however, if we understand this phrase to refer to the beginning of the institutional church. Pentecost is our birth into new life as a new creation. It is our celebration of being God's redeemed people who now share in the mission of the divine Son through the Spirit. This is the great mystery we celebrate on this festival. Pentecost may be the end of the Easter season, but it is also a celebration of the beginning of our new life in Christ.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER: Statistics show that a soldier's chances of survival in the front lines of combat are greater than the chances of an unborn child avoiding abortion. What should be the safest place to live in America – a mother's womb – is now the most dangerous place. Work and pray to end abortion today. Randy Alcorn

Save a Life. Contact Congress!!

What: Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion.

How: The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortions for years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century.

What happens without these protections: Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortions.

Take Action: Sign the petition to Congress at NoTaxPayerAbortion.com
