THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JUNE 26, 2022

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Jesus,
in today's Gospel you begin your journey to Jerusalem
where death awaits you.
Give us the courage to follow you.
Open our minds and hearts to trust you in all things.
May your Holy Spirit be with us to welcome and share your love.
Amen.

Second collection this weekend

Peter's Pence is the name for the financial help offered by the faithful to the Holy Father in support of his apostolic and charitable mission in favor of the universal Church and the entire world. Each donation, small or large, also has a powerful symbolic value – it is a concrete sign of communion with the Holy Father.

The collection for Sunday, June 19, 2022 was:

$ 5158 95 donations in church

1611.90 30 online donations

$ 6769.90 125 donations.

Thank you for your continuing support of St. Thomas More Parish.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewardship Freedom

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.” (GALATIANS 5:13)

We like to celebrate that we are free to “live the good life.” We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to Stewardship. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God's work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

From the Pastor's Desk Some Thoughts on Being a "Father"

Dear Parishioners,

I know that this particular message is a week late, but with Corpus Christi also occurring last weekend, I gave Jesus—the Bread of Life—precedence.

When Jesus' disciples asked Him to teach them to pray, the Sacred Scriptures tell us that He taught them the Our Father. (Mt. 6: 9-13; Lk 11:2-4) The Gospels record Jesus referring to God as Father over 175 times. Jesus also revealed a certain relationship, privilege and intimacy with God the Father by His reference to God as Abba (Mk. 14:36). There was a definite association that Jesus made between God, the Almighty Creator and the concept or image of Father.

Reflecting on Father's Day last Sunday, I take a few moments to ponder what it means to be a loving father.

Most likely, we will process the concept of fatherhood through our own earthly fathers. Hopefully, they are (were) wonderful, caring men who are (were) sincerely devoted to their wives and children. Probably they had their flaws and imperfections. Maybe they were not around as much as one would desire or may have been, in some instances, absent from one's life altogether. Sadly, some may have a difficulty relating to a father-figure at all, because their own fathers were abusive to some degree. There are far too many possible scenarios to mention all of them here.

Yet, when it comes to an understanding of God as Father, I suggest thinking of God as the best, perfect or ideal Father. He's the one without the flaws and imperfections, the one ever-present, who loves His children without limits or conditions. He's the Father that Jesus tried to help us know, understand and love.

The fathers among us need to strive to become a father more and more resembling the Heavenly Father that Jesus taught us about. Fathers need to make every effort to love, cherish and honor their wives and children with an unconditional love and respect. It's far too common in today's society for men to father a child biologically, and then not accept the many responsibilities that come from bringing that child into the world. A good father is accountable for his actions.

A loving father needs to provide, to protect, to teach and to lead on both an earthly and spiritual level. A child needs food, clothing, shelter, and an education, all of which a father can help provide. However, a child also needs the love, compassion, forgiveness, and understanding that should come from a caring father. A child should have a spiritual leader to look up to—a type of priest for the domestic church (family)—who can witness to the importance and relevance of God in one's life by prayer, sacrifice and charitable example.

I think that St. Joseph is someone who fathers can look up to and pray to in the quest to become a better, more-perfect father. Faced with the many challenges that came with caring for Jesus, Joseph is seen in the Scriptures as righteous—a devout observer of the Mosaic Law. (Mt. 1:19) He was entrusted by God the Father to care for His Son Jesus as a foster-father. Prayers for his intercession seem quite essential when taking on the responsibility of father.

My prayers are with all those who are addressed as father! Thanks for the many sacrifices that you make for your wife and children.

As one who is also addressed as "Father," and who is called to be the spiritual leader of my Church family, I realize many of the duties and obligations that come with being a biological father! It's not always an easy task, but it is certainly one that I have come to love and cherish more each day.

Fr. Ed Namioćka, Pastor

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JUNE 26, 2022

Ministry Schedule for July 2/3

	Presider	Music	Extraordinary Minister	Lector	Altar Server
4:30 PM	Fr. Namiotka	Music Ministry	G. Tyrrell	K. McFadden
8:30 AM	Fr. Namiotka	Music Ministry	E. Beckman	Volunteer Needed	T. Kenny E. Bresani
11:00 AM	Fr. Namiotka	Music Ministry	D. Staton	B. Haughwout	L. & G. Hutchinson M. Marsden

With schools closing, the summer season beginning, our schedules are more flexible. So we think or believe. In reality, we make the schedule and it is supposed to help us relax, find time for personal space, quiet, reflection, prayer. We decide what we wish to include. There is the danger to overschedule, or become servants to all that is on it. Some suggestion for our Religious Educating/Formation children, families

Visit family, friends we haven't visited in a long time. Especially some lonely ones Take nature trips to help us stay in touch with God's creation, Set aside family time for games, conversations, daily prayer, house tasks Do not skip MASS on week-ends. We don't take vacations from God or from Church attendance.

Read good books and include some religious ones and lives of saints.

Visit a shrine, take a pilgrimage to a new church or shrine.

Parents, grandparents, adults, it is our responsibility to nurture the faith of our children by placing them in situations where they will be in AWE of God and thus create memories for life.

We are accountable to the LORD on how we nurture our children's FAITH.

SUMMER PRAYER

Father, this summer will be full of new experiences for me and my friends: new jobs, exciting mission trips, and vacations to places we've never been before. Grow us, stretch us through whatever we do, and through wherever we go, so that we'll end the summer just a little more like you. www.christianitytoday.com

Dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis states that volunteers are, "among the most precious things the Church has ... your presence is the hand of Christ held out to all, and reaching all". The Sisters of Saint Joseph Neighborhood Center in the Cramer Hill section of Camden, offers English classes to our immigrant sisters and brothers. The Sisters are inviting you to participate in this ministry of teaching English. Our adult Neighbors come to the Center eager to learn English to improve their lives, support their families and to become contributing members of society. We are inviting volunteers 18 and older to be present to our Neighbors and share their love of the English language for two hours on Tuesday or Thursday morning or evening. If you have a desire to make a difference in someone's life, are patient and have a sense of humor please call Sr. Clarisa at 856-338-8220 ext. 102. Thank you for considering this ministry.

If you are graduating, or know of any other graduates who would like to be recognized for their achievement, please contact the Parish Office.

Learn to Crew

St. Joe's Prep is offering three opportunities this summer. July 5th—8th; 11th—15th; 18th—22nd.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 3, 2022 - Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

(Jesus appoints seventy-two disciples to help with the preaching. He sends them out with specific directions to cure the sick. The seventy-two returned rejoicing.) They said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Commentary:

Success is sweet. When we know we've done well, it's a great feeling, and when someone else congratulates or praises us, that's even better. The seventy-two return from their first mission exhilarated by many successes. They expect Jesus to say, "Well done!" Jesus does commend them but warns them not to celebrate the wrong event. Jesus knows well that the hour will come when the powers of darkness gain the victory and even the Lord of life will be taken. The real victory is not the temporary effect you can see, but the eternal one still hidden from view.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Science has determined that at conception a new individual comes into being, possessing a unique genetic code that has already determined that individual's sex, fingerprints, hair and eye color, facial features, etc. This is more than just a "blob of tissue", it's our future generations.

"...Equally worrying is the ecological question which accompanies the problem of consumerism and which is closely connected to it. In his desire to have and to enjoy rather than to be and to grow, man consumes the resources of the earth and his own life in an excessive and disordered way. . . . Man, who discovers his capacity to transform and in a certain sense create the world through his own work, forgets that this is always based on God's prior and original gift of the things that are. Man thinks that he can make arbitrary use of the earth, subjecting it without restraint to his will, as though it did not have its own requisites and a prior God-given purpose, which man can indeed develop but must not betray. Instead of carrying out his role as a co-operator with God in the work of creation, man sets himself up in place of God and thus ends up provoking a rebellion on the part of nature, which is more tyrannized than governed by him." (St. John Paul II, On the Hundredth Year [Centesimus Annus], no. 37)

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don't want another argument?

Want to Talk?

Communication Tools for Divided Times is an eight-session small group program that guides you in deepening your relationships while staying true to your values. This program draws upon the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication, civil dialogue, and grassroots organizing, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time, as well as tough conversations with our loved ones. The two-hour small group sessions can either be in person or via zoom. Daytime and evening sessions will be available. For more information or to register, visit the website of Christ Our Light at www.christourlight.net. Registration deadline is June 30. Sessions will begin after Labor Day and conclude before getting together for the Thanksgiving holidays.
