FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 11, 2021

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

The same Jesus who sent out the apostles in the Gospel comes to be with us here today. He comes so that we might enter into his kingdom, welcoming each of us, encouraging us to be strengthened to go forth to announce his kingdom. He fills us with great hope that if we repent and believe, if we draw close to him in the Sacraments, then we will experience the fulfillment of the great hope of his kingdom that if we repent and believe, if we draw close to him in the Sacraments, then we will experience the fulfillment of the great hope of his kingdom that will know no end!

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.” 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship First

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” MARK 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God’s providential care. Think of all the material things “we can’t live without” in today’s world. We make our life’s journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting Stewardship first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don’t become “slaves” to wanting to acquire more things.

From the Pastor's Desk Do We Realize What We Have?

Dear Parishioners,

Recently, there has been increased attention on the reception of Holy Communion by prominent public officials who profess to be "Catholic" despite the fact that they publicly support policies directly contrary to Church teaching. During their last general meeting, U.S. bishops debated whether to draft a document—not directly condemning those who potentially commit such sacrilege against the Most Holy Body and Blood of Our Lord—but, rather, to reinforce the Church's traditional teaching on the Holy Eucharist.

I am not a bishop and I completely respect their apostolic succession. However, many of the faithful question whether this particular document will truly have any lasting impact on congregations that have dwindled dramatically over time and who appear to have lost faith in the Real Presence. Does the bishops' response truly address the problem at hand or somehow attempt diplomatically to skirt around it? Too often I think we fear offending someone rather than warning them about the potential jeopardy to their eternal salvation.

During my lifetime, I have witnessed a dramatic decline in respect and reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist. When I received my first Holy Communion, we were not permitted to touch the host. The practice of receiving in the hand, currently acceptable and quite common, was not allowed at that point in time. Everyone received on the tongue. I can remember as a child going to many churches where we knelt along the altar rail when receiving Holy Communion.

Reflecting after nearly six decades, I have had significant time to process what this change has meant to our reception of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament. In my opinion, kneeling and receiving on the tongue seemed to maintain more of a spirit of reverence when receiving Holy Communion. Today I have encountered everything from people trying to grab the sacred host, to those who walk away without consuming the sacred host immediately, to those who handle the sacred host with as much respect as eating a potato chip. I truly do not know what people believe in the deep recesses of their hearts—now or then. However, it appears to me that there used to be much more reverence in the reception of Holy Communion in days gone by.

Moreover, there is some misguided notion in today's society that we should simply go up to Holy Communion whether or not we are in the state of grace and sufficiently prepared. I also remember a point in time when people would go to confession (the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation) pretty much each week before receiving Holy Communion. While I realize that confession is only necessary if there is mortal or serious sin involved, I, unfortunately, do not see any great lines for confession week after week. I also have this nagging question as a result of such experience: Do people no longer confess missing Mass on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation as a sin? This was a problem well before the pandemic and its related circumstances.

Christmas and Easter Catholics seem to approach the Sacrament in great numbers. Have they all made a good sacramental confession beforehand? How about those who ignore the proper fast (one hour from food and drink beforehand), those in irregular marriages (i.e., not recognized by the Church), those who persist in beliefs contrary to the faith (e.g., pro-abortion or "pro-choice" Catholics or those knowingly, regularly using artificial birth control), etc., etc.?

Worthy reception of the Holy Eucharist includes, but is not limited to, being in the state of grace (not conscious of any serious or mortal sin), a fast of one hour from food and drink beforehand (not including water and, naturally, if in good physical health), reverence and devotion (e.g., not chewing gum, talking or socializing in the line to Holy Communion) and a proper thanksgiving (not walking out the door of the Church while still consuming the sacred host).

Do we realize what we have here? We are privileged to receive Jesus the Christ, the Son of God, truly present under the appearances of bread and wine.

Is anyone really worthy of so great a gift? Nope. Still, I desire to see all people grow closer to Jesus—especially those who may not, at this time, be able to receive Holy Communion for some reason or another. A Spiritual Communion is always a valid option in this instance. (If such circumstance applies to your life, why not take the time to see if it is possible to correct matters by talking to a priest?)

Those of us who are able to receive should do all that we can to prepare properly, to receive reverently and to give thanks adequately for so great a privilege. God Almighty deserves nothing less.

Fr. Ed Namiołka, Pastor

Religious Education

This week we celebrated the memorial of St. Maria Goretti, who is acknowledge as a model martyr of purity. It is a reminder that “purity, chastity, virginity” are a part of Catholic Teaching regarding the sixth commandment. They have not been superseded by anything else and we can really say that they never will. Yes, the world can call us “crazy” and we may even give in to some of the world’s secularistic, faith-less theories, but these truths will never change. We need to speak to our children of all ages to protect themselves from people who may pose a threat to their purity and safety. Real courage is in standing up for truth and JESUS. All of us are called to be pure, chaste, virtuous in our own state in life.

This Sunday ‘s first reading, the prophet Amos is told: “Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah!” It is what the world is telling us as well, that teaching these values to our children is no longer practical, if it ever was.

In the second reading, St. Paul says; “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him.”

Question: Am I holy and blameless before JESUS? What compromise or alternative am I willing to turn to as he stands before ME and I before HIM?

Here are two videos to share with children on the story of St Maria Goretti.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 11, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 18, 2021 - Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Commentary:

Jesus looks at the crowd with great feeling. They have no one to feed them with the teaching that will give them life or with the physical food to stay alive. Jesus appreciates how vulnerable people are and how fragile their lives are. Like sheep, they will die without a shepherd to keep them together, show them the way and feed them. Seeing their need, Jesus himself begins to teach. He becomes shepherd to the leaderless flock. Jesus calls his disciples to be the kind of shepherd he is. The disciples, of course, will not understand this kind of leadership until after the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?
