Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Be a Saint for Someone Today

Today, the world needs saints. We, too, should want to be saints! By the grace of baptism and confirmation, we are called to live as saints. Inspired by the Word and nourished by the Eucharist, we are called to nurture others with hope and peace. Imperfect as we are, we have the power to reach out to lift up others and welcome them to walk with us. Together, as the Body of Christ, we can find our way through difficult times!

Someone in your life is looking for a saint. Let it be you!

Updating our Parish Records is an ongoing process. If you have changed any of your contact information please email the parish at stthomasmore@comcast.net or call the office at 856-424-3212 and confirm/update your telephone/cell phone numbers and your email address(es).

Thank you for your cooperation.

Stewardship Corner: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewardship Retreat

“He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” MARK 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us to Stewardship? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some “alone” time with God.

From the Pastor's Desk Dealing with Sickness and Death

Dear Parishioners,

Some questions about ministry to the sick and the homebound came up recently when talking with staff. Consequently, I thought that some clarification for the entire parish would be helpful based on our discussion.

We have a number of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (commonly referred to as Eucharistic Ministers) in our parish. Besides helping to distribute Holy Communion at the Masses, they may also serve regularly in two other capacities depending on the parish: bringing Holy Communion to those in the hospital and bringing Holy Communion to the homebound.

First of all, I note that they are intended as extraordinary ministers. The priests and deacons are the ordinary ministers. While we have become very accustomed to seeing the extraordinary ministers at Mass, whenever a priest or deacon is present, distributing Holy Communion is their ordinary ministry and the extraordinary ministers should properly defer to them.

If there is someone in your family who is homebound and is unable to come to Mass, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion can be assigned to visit the home weekly to bring Holy Communion. Please contact the parish office to arrange for this. The minister is then asked to be the eyes of the priest in this situation. If the person requests the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (confession) or should receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick because of advanced age or illness, the minister is asked to notify the priest and he will visit the home as soon as possible.

Priests are specifically ordained for ministry of the sacraments and should be called especially for confession or anointing. The forgiveness of sin is tied to these two sacraments and a priest—rather than an extraordinary minister or even a deacon—is required.

At the time prior to a person's death, a priest has special authority to do what is necessary for the salvation of the person's soul. A priest should be called whenever a person becomes seriously ill because the sacraments are intended for the living. While a priest can always pray with the family after a person has died, he should be called to be present—if at all possible—before death.

Additionally, most hospitals in the Diocese of Camden have a chaplain assigned to them. However, the patient or the family needs to make the chaplain's office aware of someone wanting to see a priest or to receive Holy Communion. Please be aware that privacy restrictions (HIPAA) can sometimes prevent priests from finding out information unless they are specifically informed by the patient or family. Also, while I am glad to visit a parishioner in the hospital, please do not assume that your parish priest automatically knows that someone is there. The parish emergency number should be used in this instance, usually after an attempt to contact the hospital chaplain, especially in emergency or serious circumstances.

In one of my former assignments, a religious sister told me about how her father prayed every day for the grace of a happy death and that a priest would be present when he died. On the day of his death, mysteriously there were so many priests who happened to visit the home, to be in the area, that she knew God answered his prayer with His super-abundant mercy.

Also in one of my former parishes, a scheduled parish appointment was cancelled and I then had the opportunity to go to the home of a long-time friend who had been seriously ill with pancreatic cancer. When I arrived at the home I could see that he was gravely ill. He had been given the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and received Holy Communion on almost a daily basis when he was still able to do so. With the family and the hospice nurse present, I began to pray with him as I held his hand. I whispered in his ear that it was “okay to go to Jesus.” Peacefully, he passed.

I believe Jesus was present in that home at that moment working mysterious through my priestly ministry. Why was my parish appointment cancelled? Why was I at the home at that particular moment in time? Was it simply an accident or coincidence, or rather a remarkable act of God's Providential Grace?

Pray for the grace of a happy death. Pray and request a priest for family members or yourself when there is any serious illness.

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

Religious Education for our children is not just classes on a subject. It is forming spiritual beings in the God given right that our children have to learn about HIM. Religious formation is teaching about a way of life, of thinking and acting, according to GOD’S revelation in Scripture. The parents are the first formators of their children along with the parish and extended family . If it “takes a village to educate a child, it takes a parish to form a child in the faith.”

We add: Faith formation is the sure way to make a difference in the life of our children which will make them 'World Changers.'

What does stewardship mean to a Christian?

The definition of Christian stewardship is a follower of the teachings of Jesus Christ spending their time, money, and energy focusing on making the world better and taking care of the people and things which are important to them.

Providing monies necessary for the successful, continued maintenance of the church is one way to live out the stewardship life.

WAYS YOU CAN GIVE:

1. Use weekly envelopes for your donations.
2. Parish Giving is an automated means to support our parish through weekly and monthly contributions from your checking, savings or credit/debit card account. Check our website for more information.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 18, 2021

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 25, 2021- John 6:1-15

[A large crowd came to listen to Jesus. Jesus asks Philip where they can get food to feed the people. Even 200 days' wages worth of food would not be enough, Philip tells Jesus. A young boy has a few fish and a few loaves of bread. More than 5000 people must be fed.] "Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted." [Jesus then tells the Apostles to gather the leftovers.] "So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat..." When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

Commentary:

An astonishing sign! Who is this man? A miracle worker? A prophet? A king? Yes—but more. The superabundance of food Jesus provides from so little is a sign of the fullness of life Jesus has to offer. We turn to Jesus not just for bread to eat but for life itself.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER:

Humanity has overcome the food chain and, having surpassed all other predators, has now turned to a strange form of cannibalism: humanity preys upon itself.

We murder our own children through abortion, and call it progress. Pray to end abortion.

Bulletin Bloopers

The sermon this morning: "Jesus walks on water." The sermon this evening: "Searching for Jesus."

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our parish.

Don't let worry kill you, let the church help.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, there is a nursery downstairs.

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones.

The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the Church basement Friday at 7 PM. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

Catholic Social Teaching

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice.

It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . recovery of sight to the blind" (Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt . 25: 45)

Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor. This commitment arises from our experiences of Christ in the Eucharist. (USCCB)
