SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 19, 2020

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Starting Fall 2020

Be a Saint for Someone Today

Today, the world needs saints. We, too, should want to be saints! By the grace of baptism and confirmation, we are called to live as saints. Inspired by the Word and nourished by the Eucharist, we are called to nurture others with hope and peace. Imperfect as we are, we have the power to reach out to lift up others and welcome them to walk with us. Together, as the Body of Christ, we can find our way through difficult times! Someone in your life is looking for a saint. Let it be you!

Join us for Mass! #SPPC
Let us gather and celebrate the Mass. Visit our parish Facebook® page!

Bishop Sullivan has given permission for our parish to distribute Holy Communion INSIDE the Church on Sundays from 12:15 to 12:30 PM to those who watched the Mass livestreamed in their homes. You are directed to come to the Main doors of the church. All health protocols (masks and social distancing) are to be followed.

Stewardship Corner: July 19, 2020 - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom."

(Matthew 13:24, 37-38)

As children of God, we are all "good seeds." We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our Stewardship of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven.

From the (New) Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Hello! This is my first letter to you from your new pastor!

At my last parishes, I was accustomed to writing a letter for the bulletin each week. I hope that you will not mind if I continue the practice here at St. Thomas More.

Change is usually not easy for any of us because it can cause a disruption in one's routine, create an unfamiliar situation, and may necessitate certain adaptations. As a priest ordained thirty-three years, I have had to move and change assignments quite a few times: from National Park to Hammonton, to East Vineland, to Vineland, to Buena Borough, to Somers Point, to Woodbury and now to Cherry Hill. In each instance, the change involved leaving certain familiar circumstances and people whom I loved and cared for, to meet new people and face new challenges. Each experience has contributed, I hope, to making me a better person and more compassionate priest.

Let me tell you something about myself. I was born in Philadelphia but my parents bought property in Wildwood when I was just two years old and my family subsequently moved. I am the oldest of five children, four boys and a girl. My father is deceased and my mother still lives at the shore.

I attended St. Ann's School and Wildwood Catholic High School. After high school, I entered the seminary and attended St. Charles Borromeo Seminary (Philadelphia) for college. My next four years were spent at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD.

I have spent twenty years educating high school students—six years at St. Joseph High School, Hammonton and 14 years at Sacred Heart High School, Vineland.

Typically, people have two regular questions about me. 1) What is your origin of your last name? I am frequently told that it appears Japanese. Then they meet me and see that I stand six feet six inches tall and hardly look Asian. My heritage is Polish-American and my name is most easily pronounced two letters at a time: Na-mi-ot-ka (Na-MEE-ot-ka). 2) Did you play basketball? Yes, I played in my younger days but I was never really that good. Unfortunately, height does not equal talent.

As I take on this new assignment I have a couple of requests of you, my parishioners. First, please pray for me! I will certainly need your prayers and support as I begin this new chapter of my life. Next, please be patient as I try to learn the rhythm and personality of the parish. Every parish is different and it takes some time for a pastor to become familiar with its unique character and challenges.

What I can promise you is that I will work hard, pray for you each day, take my priestly calling (vocation) very seriously and attempt to leave St. Thomas More a better place because of my being here. With the grace and mercy of God, I hope that we will all grow in holiness together. Throughout my life I have sought the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary to help me follow whatever God's will is for my life. I invite you to do the same. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

(What I write each week will be posted on my web site: www.fr-ed-namiotka.com with a link from the parish web site hopefully to follow soon.)

I look forward to meeting all of you over time!

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

FIFTEENTH SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 19, 2020

Ministry Schedule for July 25/26

	Presider	Music	Extraordinary Minister	Lector
4:30 PM	Fr. Namiotka	Erin Len	N. Kirincic	K. Febus
8:30AM	Fr. Namiotka	Celine Eugene	K. Witts	F. Eggles

We do live in strange/weird times, at least for us living in the USA. GOD as a Father is with us in this "man-made crisis". I think that HE is looking down on the world with sadness, and for sure helping humanity in finding its way out of the situation. Our own LAND, even with all our problems, still is looked upon as the LAND of opportunity, freedom, personal advancement. Having attended Catholic School for some years, I remember the Sisters promoting patriotism, in the Pledge of Allegiance, in memorizing parts of the Declaration Of Independence and the US Constitution and in teaching patriotic hymns and songs. What I remember vividly is the fact that FREEDOM OF RELIGION was at the foundation of our nations and its motto was/is "IN GOD IS OUR TRUST".

See the Last stanza of the Battle Hymn of the Republic

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom, That transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy, Let us die to make men free;
While God is marching on.

Alleluia (the definition of the word is "Let us Praise God")

In these very unique times.... let us talk to our children about patriotism, about the sacrifices of the Founding Fathers and Mothers, their risk-taking to achieve their HOPE "freedom to practice their faith", and their desire to have GOD at the foundation of our NATION. THEY were not perfect or sinless, but nonetheless they taught us bravery in seeking the "what is right". They were not quitters. Sing and play these hymns and other patriotic hymns for our children to hear, sing and appreciate (YOUTUBE has many versions). LET US THANK GOD FOR OUR COUNTRY AND ALL IT STANDS FOR. Let us also be brave, courageous in seeking and doing "what is right" AMEN!

Pope John Paul II said "I place much of my hope for the future of marriage in Worldwide Marriage Encounter". Worldwide Marriage Encounter is being supported by Bishop Sullivan for support of Catholic married couples.

MARRIED COUPLES: It's spring training time. Play ball with your spouse and sign up to hit a home run at a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 19, 2020

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 26, 2020 - Matt. 13:44-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

Commentary:

The Gospel today speaks of true wisdom, a priceless treasure to be sought with all one's heart. In the first comparison Jesus uses, a man discovers a treasure that was so valuable that he "sold all he had and bought the field." In the second comparison a pearl merchant discovers a pearl worth more than all his other possessions. Common to both stories is the marvel of discovering such a prize and giving everything to gain possession of it. The point of both parables is that gaining the treasure of God's saving love is worth any sacrifice.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

- 1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE Corner: Abortion and Euthanasia are a cancer killing America. Many nations do not die from invasion; they die from internal rotteness. You must remember that some things legally right are not morally right. Abortion on demand is killing America.

St. Thomas More Parish family rejoices with the family of Caitlyn Di Paolo who will receive First Holy Communion at the 4:30 pm Mass, Saturday, July 18, 2020, Patrick Saporetti who will receive First Holy Communion July 19, 2020 at the 8:30 am Mass, and Amelia Royster who will receive First Holy Communion July 19, 2020 at the 11:00 am Mass.

A Prayer for Racial Justice

When our eyes do not see the gravity of racial injustice, Shake us from our slumber and open our eyes, O Lord. When out of fear we are frozen into inaction, Give us a spirit of bravery, O Lord. When we try our best but say the wrong things, Give us a spirit of humility, O Lord. When the chaos of this dies down, Give us a lasting spirit of solidarity, O Lord. When it becomes easier to point fingers outward, Help us to examine our own hearts, O Lord. God of truth, in your wisdom, Enlighten Us. God of love, in your mercy, Forgive Us. God of hope in your kindness, Heal Us. Creator of All People, in your generosity, Guide Us. Racism breaks your heart, break our hearts for what breaks yours, O Lord.
