SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 24, 2022

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

Prayer Before Meditation

*Give me a candle of Your Spirit, O God, as I go down into the deep of my own being.
Show me the hidden things.*

*Take me down to the spring of my life,
and tell me my nature and my name.*

Give me freedom to grow so that I may become my true self— the fulfillment of the seed which You planted in me at my making.

Out of the deep I cry unto thee, O God. Amen

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.” 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewardship Gratefulness

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” LUKE 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

From the Pastor's Desk Going Beyond the Words

Dear Parishioners,

There are two versions of the Lord's Prayer found in Sacred Scripture. Our Church uses the version from St. Matthew's Gospel (Mt. 6: 9-13) in its liturgical prayer. This Sunday's Gospel recalls the other shorter version given by St. Luke (Lk. 11: 2-4).

Too often we can get into a rut when reciting prayers from memory. We might just say the words without thinking about some of the things that we actually pray. Additionally, we might not even focus on the actual person (God) who is the recipient of our prayer.

I share with you today a brief reflection on the Our Father coming from my own prayer time. What might your own thoughts be as you prayerfully reflect on the words and the Person to whom you are praying? Prayer is very much about a relationship with God and not just about saying words. Prayer involves a two-way communication: speaking and listening. What does God say to you and me as we listen for Him in our minds and in our hearts?

Our—All creation, all living beings and inanimate objects, exist because of God and His creative power. Absolutely everything!

Father—We are God's children by adoption, because of our baptism into Christ Jesus, with the privilege of calling God "Father." It was Jesus who taught us that God is Abba—Father.

Who art in heaven—What exactly is heaven like? “. . . Eye has not seen, and ear has not heard and [it] has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love Him.” (1 Cor. 2:9)

Hallowed be Thy name—God is holy. His name needs to be revered and respected. Hopefully I never use His name in vain or carelessly.

Thy kingdom come—Jesus announced the Kingdom of God is at hand (see Mk. 1:15). He ushered in the reign of God. What am I doing to build up the Kingdom of God here on earth?

Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven—In the end God's will is going to be accomplished. Do I truly turn my will over to the will of God each day? Do I foolishly think I am in control and not God?

Give us this day our daily bread—I know that I am sustained by God each day and, more importantly, I have the privilege of receiving Jesus, the Bread of Life, at Mass each day. The Holy Eucharist is our food for eternal life. “. . . Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood you do not have life in you.”(Jn. 6:53) The Greek word used in both versions of the Lord's Prayer is absolutely unique when describing this bread: epiousios. It literally means super-substantial. The prayer asks for something much more than ordinary bread. Do I truly believe in Jesus' Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist?

Forgive us our trespasses—Lord, have mercy on me a sinner. Do I realize the power of God's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (confession) on a regular basis? Do I humble myself and admit my sins, admit that I am wrong?

As we forgive those who trespass against us—God has forgiven me so many times. Do I also extend His mercy and forgiveness to others?

Lead us not into temptation—Lord, there are just so many things in our world that are tempting us to choose them instead of You. I remember the words of St. Augustine—our hearts are restless until they rest in You. Let me never give into a temptation by choosing a passing, temporary satisfaction instead of Your unfathomable, unending love.

Deliver us from evil—Every day I am confronted with the evils of the world including war, terrorism, prejudice, poverty, injustice, and too many sins to think about. Evil exists as does the evil one—Satan. Lord, save me and keep me and all your beloved children, especially my parishioners, other loved ones and my own family, from all evil.

What might you add to this reflection?

Our hearts are always thirsting for God. There is a spot where HE dwells. Only there do we find peace and truth. But it is easy for us to close that part of our heart and actually tell GOD “not to bother us”, as we are too busy living our lives our own way. It is heresy because without God we never can find true fulfillment and JOY for this life and the next. Thus, we pray with the Psalmist “break through our stubbornness and remind us” of HIS presence.

*O, God, you search me, and you know me
 All my thoughts lie open to your gaze
 When I walk or lie down, you are before me
 Ever the maker and keeper of my days
 You know my resting and my rising
 You discern my purpose from afar
 And with love everlasting, you besiege me
 In every moment of life or death, you are
 Before a word is on my tongue, Lord
 You have known its meaning through and through
 You are with me beyond my understanding
 God of my present, my past and future, too
 Although your Spirit is upon me
 Still I search for shelter from your light
 There is nowhere on Earth I can escape you
 Even the darkness is radiant in your sight
 For you created me and shaped me
 Gave me life within my mother’s womb
 For the wonder of who I am, I praise you
 Safe in your hands, all creation is made new*

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 24, 2022

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 31, 2022- Luke 12:13-21

"Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.' Jesus replied to him, 'Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?' Then Jesus said to the crowd, 'Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.'"

Commentary:

Inheritance is the mother lode of all wealth, of course, precisely because it is not earned. It is also one of the touchiest money matters because of the way it can divide the affections of families. Jesus refuses to wade into this business with one indignant heir. Instead, he widens the focus of the issue to how we are tempted to fixate on wealth above all other matters. Is an inheritance more important than a brother? Is money more valuable than time? Is our net worth a greater concern than the person we are becoming as we make our bank deposits? Greed City may be a nice place to visit, but we can't live there forever.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Trusting in the providential care of our Heavenly Father and through the intercession of Mary, our Blessed Mother, we ask for peace in our communities, and the strength to build a society where every woman has the support and the resources she needs to bring her child into this world in love. NJ Catholic Bishops

Europe and the Impact of Climate Change

A deadly heatwave spreading across Europe is breaking temperature records, fueling wild fires, and disrupting transportation, as the continent faces the impact of climate change.

At least five European countries have declared states of emergency or issued red alerts, and governments are racing to care for tens of thousands of people who have been displaced by the fires.

"Climate change kills people, our ecosystem, and what is most precious to us," Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez said on Monday during a visit to an area hit by fires. Wildfires are also raging in France, Portugal, and Greece, fueled by long spells of hot weather.

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society works with Catholic Charities to assist refugee families in need.

Catholic Charities states many newer refugees that are receiving Government support are one step away from poverty, and it does not take much. An illness without medical coverage, or a car accident can turn into unemployment and potential eviction and utilities being turned off. St. Vincent de Paul works with Catholic Charities to provide food gift cards and bags of food from our food pantry. Last month the Society assisted two Afghan, two Burmese and one Ugandan family, in addition to our regular families. Your contributions are assisting many in need in our area!!
