TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, AUGUST 22, 2021

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:50 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish office to register. Registration forms are available on our Web Site.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

Prayer of Spouses for Each Other

Lord Jesus, grant that my spouse and I be filled with faith and trust.

May we always bear with one another's weaknesses and grow from each other's strengths.

Help us to forgive one another's failings and grant us patience, kindness, cheerfulness, and the spirit of placing the well-being of one another ahead of self.

May the love that brought us together grow and mature with each passing year.

Bring us both closer to you through our love for each other.

Amen

Stewardship Corner: 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time
Living Stewardship

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." JOSHUA 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually live Stewardship and not merely talk about it!

From the Pastor's Desk

A Reminder of What We Missed Last Sunday . . .

Dear Parishioners,

Last week, the normal Sunday readings were interrupted because the solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary fell on a Sunday this liturgical year (2021). Unfortunately, some of the most significant words of Jesus regarding the Holy Eucharist—found in Jesus' Bread of Life Discourse (John, chapter 6)—were bypassed as a result. Let me just quote a few of the most significant lines found there:

I am the bread of life . . . I am the bread that came down from heaven . . . Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life within you . . . Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. . . My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink

Bread is indeed a staple of life for many people throughout history. In Jesus' time it was part of the everyday meal as was table wine. He used both of these common elements in an extraordinary way when He was at table with his disciples before His death—the Last Supper.

Bread also had some spiritual significance throughout history for the Jewish and later Christian peoples. The Jewish people eat unleavened bread to commemorate their freedom from Egypt when they had to flee before they had time for the bread to rise (Ex. 34:18). When the Jews were wandering in the desert after their exodus from Egypt, God gave them manna to eat—mysterious “bread from heaven.” (Ex. 16) The Jews also kept showbread or bread of presence—twelve loaves representing the twelve tribes of Israel—before God in the sanctuary of the Temple. Later, Jesus famously multiplied the loaves and fish, to feed the hungry multitudes (Mt. 14:15-21, Mk. 6:34-42, Lk. 9:16-17, Jn. 6:9-13}. The use of bread comes to a spiritual summit in Jesus' designation of it as His body at the Last Supper (Mt. 26: 26, Mk. 14:22, Lk. 22:19, 1 Cor. 11:23-24).

However, in the Gospel of St. John, Chapter 6, as we read what is referred to as Jesus' Bread of Life Discourse, Jesus makes some very profound and perhaps, disturbing, statements. Some people found his teaching hard to take and walked away from Him. This passage is seen as an essential commentary on the significance and value of the Most Holy Eucharist. We hear some of the most definitive statements of Jesus regarding the Holy Eucharist. The Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament is one of the core teachings of the Catholic faith. We do not believe in some mere symbolic presence, but take Jesus literally—at his word—in our understanding of this divine mystery. Over the centuries, the term transubstantiation—a change in substance (but not in appearance)—has been used to explain this essential dogma.

When we approach the Most Holy Eucharist, we approach Jesus—our Lord, God and Savior. He deserves our love, reverence and respect. Reverence and awe cannot be overstated or over emphasized. Like the people in the Gospel, our attitude toward the Holy Eucharist should be one of desire, anticipation, thanksgiving and joy: “Sir, give us this bread always.” (John 6: 34)

Please realize Whom we are privileged to have on our altar and to receive: Jesus, the Son of God.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week’s Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 29, 2021 - Mark 7:1-8

The Pharisees and Scribes questioned Jesus. “Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?” Jesus responded, “Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me, in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts. You disregard God’s commandment but cling to human tradition.”

Commentary:

Most of our mothers would side with the Pharisees: no one should come to the table with unwashed hands! Hygiene, of course, was not the issue in Jesus’ day. The matter was one of respect for the authority of tradition. We might imagine today’s Pharisees saying, “Why didn’t that woman genuflect before going into the pew? Why didn’t that man kneel during the consecration? Why did that family leave Mass early or arrive so late? Responding to the Pharisees and Scribes, Jesus moves the discussion from outward observances to inward intention, calling us back to the true purpose of Law and tradition: conversion of heart.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

- 1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER: Jesus commanded us to love the least, not abandon them to destruction. We must stop aborting babies. Our nation’s future depends upon it. (Includes image of red roses)

Pondering an idea for a different gift for a special occasion, birthday, anniversary, memorial remembrance?

Fresh flowers for the altar can be given to honor living and deceased family members. You order the flowers from the florist of your choice, have them delivered to the church on Friday and put in place for the weekend Masses, where they will remain for the week. Your contribution will be mentioned in the Parish bulletin on the date requested. time. Call the Parish Office (856-424-3212) to see if the date of your choice is available. All requests scheduled in order received. (Includes image of blue hydrangeas)

United Nation’s Panel on Climate Change

Last week the United Nations’ Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change released a devastating report that makes clear that worsening sea-level rise and severe storms, droughts and heat waves are inevitable around the globe over the next few decades. Google the IPCC Report from the United Nations to read the report.

Faith leaders believe that dramatic efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions could hold off the worst impacts over the longer term.
