TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 4, 2022

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.
In every age you speak to us, including this age.
Help us to listen actively for your voice
in every way that you make it known.
Once we hear your voice,
give us the courage to live what we hear
and make you known today as clearly as your Son Jesus did in his time and place.
Amen

The Parish Office is closed,

$2328.00 donations online
$7206.00 total donations

Thank you for your continuing generosity.

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”

Stewardship Corner: 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Possessions

“Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, we as Stewards must renounce the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples

From the Pastor's Desk

What Went Wrong?

Dear Parishioners,

We have seen in the past decades, especially along the Northeast corridor of our country, significant changes within the Catholic Church. Parishes were merged. Catholic schools were regionalized. Other schools and church buildings were closed or scheduled for closure. Mass attendance has dwindled. With this, the Church's decision making and teaching authority is questioned and frequently ignored. Bishops are ridiculed. Pastors are often placed in awkward or difficult positions. Emotions run high. Frustration and anger are frequently expressed. Many look for someone or something to blame. Plenty of questions are asked.

Exactly what went wrong—so terribly wrong—that we are in our current situation? Are factors like scandals, changing demographics, troubled financial situations or the slumping economy the only causes of our problems? Jesus asked this question a long time ago: “. . . When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?” (Lk. 18:8) I think this is where we should begin to examine the situation. In many ways we are experiencing in our society and in our world a profound crisis of faith.

We will certainly find the faithful disciple among us—a person like St. John, the Blessed Mother, or St. Mary Magdalene—someone who stands by Jesus and His Church, faithful until the bitter end. These three were among those remaining at the foot of the cross. People like them, however, seem to be few and far between—even in Jesus' time. After all, where were all of His other disciples?

More often, Catholics today fall into numerous other categories. Jesus didn't relate to us the Parable of the Sower (Mk. 4: 3-20; Mt. 13: 1-23; Lk. 8: 4-15) because everyone received His message with undying fervor and enthusiasm. Quite the contrary!

At times, we may be like St. Peter: “Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you.” (Mk. 14:31)—until the going gets tough, that is.

We may be like Sts. Peter, James and John who were asked by Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane to: “Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.” (Mk. 14: 38) Jesus returned and found them sound asleep. So much for His urgent request!

We may be like the people of Athens when St. Paul tried to preach there: “When they heard about resurrection of the dead, some began to scoff, but others said, ‘We should like to hear you on this some other time.’” (Acts 17: 32) For many of the so-called academics residing there, the “good news” about Jesus was too much pie in the sky for them and/or Jesus remained simply an intellectual curiosity. Unfortunately, little or no real faith could be found in this situation.

Fast forward to today and the quality of discipleship present: The number of Catholics who do not attend Mass weekly far outweighs those who participate regularly. If only those former Christmas and Easter crowds would continue all year long! More and more parents are consciously limiting the sizes of their families—often with seemingly good Intentions—thus contributing to a reduced future population of parishes and schools. Gone are the days of those stereotypical large Catholic families. (Whether or not artificial birth control or sterility techniques are being employed to do this is a topic for another day.) Fewer Catholics tend to get married in Church. (Options such as destination weddings are increasing in popularity.) And if couples still come to the Church to be married, they are frequently living together (cohabitating) first.

- Personal sacrifice for matters of faith is more infrequent today. (For example, my parents chose not to take a personal vacation for over 30 years because they chose to send their 5 children to Catholic schools—all the way through college! I'm not sure how many people today would be willing to make a similar sacrifice so that their children could attend a Catholic school.)

- Morality has become all too subjective and relativistic. What “I” think is right or wrong too often supersedes what the Church traditionally teaches on the matter. (In conjunction with this mentality, too many Catholics do not benefit from the Sacrament of Penance regularly. There is no need to do so when you act as your own moral compass.) Scandal, disillusionment, past questionable decisions, mockery or criticism of organized religion, materialism, secularism, indifferentism, and far too many other factors including sin and selfishness, have eroded and taken a serious toll on the faith of so many. Some may highlight factors like changing demographics, poor finances, a difficult economy, and various scandals which certainly have some influence on our situation, but I do not think that this goes far enough. I conclude that many of the problems that we find in today's Church are manifestations of multiple factors—a sort of perfect storm—the greatest of which is an obvious decrease in the practice of and adherence to the traditional Catholic (Christian) faith. And this problem isn't just local or even regional but throughout the world.

Why, then, do I personally remain faithful to Jesus and His Church? I recall that Jesus had to deal with a serious crisis of faith when some of His followers chose to leave Him because of what He taught about the Eucharist: “Jesus then said to the Twelve, ‘Do you also want to leave?’ Simon Peter answered him, ‘Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.’” (Jn. 6: 67-68) Despite everything else that may occur, I pray to maintain my faith in Jesus. I believe that He still works through His Church. And I continue to take consolation in His promise to us that He will remain with us always, until the end of time. (cf. Mt. 28: 20) Ongoing, personal conversion at all levels of the Church, however, is still very much needed.

The Seed of Faith is planted in our heart at its first heartbeat. The first heartbeat is the breath of GOD, breathing LIFE in the new person, a new creation.. The seed grows as it is nurtured by those to whom it is entrusted, parents, family, parish, etc. Faith grows and GOD makes HIS presence felt as the essential conditions are present. What awesome reality, too much for our human minds to thoroughly fathom. Our children’s faith formation here at our parish will strive to provide nurturing for that seed to grow into a lively and dynamic relationship with JESUS and the Blessed Trinity, bearing fruit for its earthly surroundings. The parish is to be a fertile ground where the Eucharist nourishes its members and bears fruit of HOLINESS which expands and spread for the good of others and for the world. Every good action makes the world a better place to live. True JOY and happiness are found deeply within the human soul, and spring forth from our personal relationship with JESUS. Unfortunately, sin and evil have spreading effects causing unhappiness, sadness for the whole world as we can see. Let us provide positive environment for our Children where their faith is nourished and their inclination toward JESUS fostered and strengthened. Each of us is responsible to spread HOLIENSS AROUND.

Our Father’s GOD to THEE, author of liberty, to THEE we sing.

O may our land be bright with freedom holy light, Protect US by THY might, great GOD our KING.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 11, 2022 Luke 15: 1-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Jesus then relates three parables: 1. searching after one lost sheep while leaving the 99 behind; 2. the woman who has ten coins, loses one and searches throughout the house until she finds the lost coin; 3. the parable of the Prodigal Son. Following the story of the lost sheep, Jesus says, "I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance." Following the story of the lost coin, Jesus says, "I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents." At the end of the story of the Prodigal Son, the Father in the story says, "we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

Commentary:

Luke keeps assuring his readers of God's amazing acceptance of sinners. God makes the first move, even before the sinner is ready to return. Self-righteous people think God must follow their rules. They think they determine whom and how God will forgive. Jesus says God follows God's own rules. Christians are being told not to imitate the religious "snobs" of Jesus' day. Christians must let God be God and not presume to tell God who can be saved and how people must be saved.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

A Pope's Prayer for Immigrants

Merciful God, we pray to you for all men, women, and children who have died after leaving their homelands in search of a better life. Though many of their graves bear no name, to you each one is known, loved, and cherished. May we never forget them, but honour their sacrifice with deeds more than words. We entrust to you all those who have made this journey, enduring fear, uncertainty, and humiliation in order to reach a place of safety and hope. Just as you never abandoned your Son as he was brought to a safe place by Mary and Joseph, so now be close to these, your sons and daughters through our tenderness and protection. In caring for them may we seek a world where none are forced to leave their home and where all can live in freedom, dignity, and peace. Merciful God and Father of all, wake us from the slumber of indifference, open our eyes to their suffering, and free us from the insensitivity born of worldly comfort and self-centeredness. Inspire us, as nations, communities, and individuals, to see that those who come to our shores are our brothers and sisters. May we share with them the blessings we have received from your hand, and recognize that together as one human family. We are all migrants journeying in hope to you, our true home, where every tear will be wiped away, where we will be at peace and safe in your embrace. Pope Francis
