TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

We want to extend this invitation
For you to come along
And become part of our church family
Where you feel that you belong
For you are valued by the Lord
And He has a purpose for you,
He's placed within you special gifts,
He longs for you to use
And we, as a church, would love to see
You grow within your gifts,
For then we all can receive a blessing
With what God's blessed you with.

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land." 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewardship Service

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." MARK 9:35

Jesus teaches His Stewards that they are called to love one another. Love involves sacrifice. Sacrifice is a word that many of us don't like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

From the Pastor

Learning Humility

Dear Parishioners,

When I was a seminarian preparing for ordination to the Priesthood, I thought that it might be a good idea to pray for humility. It seemed, at the time, to be a wise aspiration.

Gradually, things were brought to my attention concerning the topic of humility—now on a somewhat regular basis. I heard things said to me like: Be careful of what you pray for, you might get it and The quickest way to humility is through humiliation.

On the day of the senior class graduation from the college seminary, there was a well-planned Baccalaureate Mass. I happened to be the sacristan of the seminary chapel at the time. I would be the person leading the reader to his appropriate place at the pulpit during the proclamation of the readings from Sacred Scripture. The chapel was packed. Family and friends, the entire faculty and various dignitaries were present for this momentous occasion. The homily was thoroughly prepared by the priest assigned to preach, based primarily on the first reading, which I later found out had been chosen from the book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

I led the reader to the pulpit after making the appropriate bows. As we looked at the Lectionary and the reading set open in front of us, he whispers to me, “This isn’t the right reading.” In a state of panic I said quickly and without much thought: “Well . . . read it anyway.” I instructed him to read the incorrect reading in front of everyone. It was from the Acts of the Apostles. It had multiple difficult names to pronounce. The homily, I came to find out, had been based almost entirely on the reading from the Prophet Jeremiah. I was humiliated. I guess I began to learn humility.

Fast forward to when I initially became a principal of a diocesan high school. It was the night of the open house. I was hurrying around the buildings trying to make sure the bathrooms looked clean and presentable for any guests. I began to clean things up. Not really a pleasant job for anyone, I thought. Then I recalled the brilliant words of advice that I had given to my students at various times: Stay in school. Get your degrees so that you don’t wind up cleaning bathrooms for a living. Who was it now cleaning bathrooms? Humility? Hmm.

At other times humility kicks in as well. One Sunday the deacon had preached during the Mass that I offered. We went to the back of church to greet the people as they exited. “Great homily Father!” One particular gentleman had said that right to my face with all seriousness. I hadn’t preached at that Mass. He hadn’t a clue. Great homily . . . Oh well! Humility . . .

Be sure to heed the words from today’s Gospel:

[Jesus and His disciples] came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” (Mk. 9: 33-35)

May I also add my own words of caution when praying for something (like humility): Be very careful; you might actually get what you pray for!

Fr. Ed Namiotka

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

Ministry Schedule for September 25/26

	Presider	Music	Extraordinary Minister	Lector	Altar Server
4:30 PM	Fr. Namiotka	Julius Julie	E. Beckman	C. Betson-Smith
8:30AM	Fr. Namiotka	Julie	K. Witts	K. Kraemer	A. & R. Witts
11:00AM	Fr. Namiotka	Maria Elena/Choir Julie	J. DeMichele	M. Dwyer

Jesus IS the Way, the Truth and the Life

Jesus is who we follow and on whom we center our existence. We believe and trust in Him.

We will begin our faith formation or Catechism for our children on Sunday, September 26th from 9:30 to 10:45 AM

We have a very high-spirited group of Catechists, who will be commissioned Sunday, September 19th, at the 11:00 am Mass. They are:

Grade 1 Sr. Maria Liber (Mrs. Marianne Wilkins, asst.)

Grade 2 Mrs. Katie Witts ( Mrs Erika Andino, asst.)

Grade 3 Mrs. Angela Russo

Grade 4 Mrs. Kathy Kraemer

Grade 5 Mr. Jose Andino

Grade 6: Mrs. Jennifer Flynn

Grade 7 Mr. & Mrs. Bresani

Grade 8 Mrs. Francis Eggles (Mrs. Antonina Bellesorte asst.)

The service of the Catechist is of the highest importance and indispensable. Catechists speak the message of the gospel so that the hearer becomes enthused by JESUS' own teaching and life and becomes a part of that message. The Catechist is a "model of faith" in words, deeds and lived devotions; the Catechist is an expert in imitating the life of JESUS through personal, concrete examples. Thus, the work of those called to be Catechists are worthy of admiration from the whole Church. They are gratefully acknowledged for their contribution in "echoing" the faith and passing it on, enduring the test of time.

A Catechist's Prayer

Loving Father, pour forth your Holy Spirit upon me that I may be a good catechist of your Word, your Son, Jesus Christ. Render my mind and heart so open, receptive and responsive to your Holy Spirit that, like Mary, I might become a living instrument of your Word to others. Help me to be a faithful witness to Gospel life so that your Church may become ever more alive. Let the fire of your love so enkindle my heart that I may be an instrument of drawing others to love of you in the Church of your Son. I ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 26, 2021 – Mark 9:38-48

Jesus said, "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire."

Commentary:

Perhaps we have known someone whose illness made it necessary to have a diseased part of his or her body removed in order to preserve life. Self-preservation is a strong instinct. Sometimes extraordinary efforts are made to preserve physical life. How strong is our drive to sustain our spiritual life? Can we describe our efforts as extraordinary? For most of us, it would only take a small bit of introspection to identify something in our life that needs to go—something we need to cut away.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE CORNER:

The old liberal rebelled against taxation without responsibility; the new liberal wants the taxation as a handout without responsibility. A prime example is using tax dollars to pay for abortions. Pray and work to end abortion.

Prayer for World Day of Migrants and Refugees Migrants and Refugees Week September 20th— 26th

Holy, beloved Father, Your Son Jesus taught us that there is great rejoicing in heaven whenever someone lost is found, whenever someone excluded, rejected, or discarded is gathered into our "we" which thus becomes ever wider.

We ask You to grant the followers of Jesus, and all people of good will, the grace to do Your will on earth. Bless each act of welcome and outreach that draws those in exile into the "we" of community and of the Church, so that our earth may truly become what You Yourself created it to be, the common home of all our brothers and sisters. Amen Pope Francis

Homebound? Not feeling well?

Sundays at 11:00 AM

Pondering an idea for a different gift for a special occasion, birthday, anniversary, memorial remembrance?

Fresh flowers for the altar can be given to honor living and deceased family members. You order the flowers from the florist of your choice, have them delivered to the church on Friday and put in place for the weekend Masses, where they will remain for the week. Your contribution will be mentioned in the Parish bulletin on the date requested. Call the Parish Office (856-424-3212) to see if the date of your choice is available. All requests scheduled in order received.

ST MARY'S BLOOD DRIVE IS THIS WEEK

A Red Cross Drive is scheduled between 9:30 AM and 7:30 PM this coming Thursday, September 23 in their Parish Hall, at St. Mary Church Parish Hall, 2001 Springdale Road, Cherry Hill, and additional donors are needed to meet the assigned goal. The primary use of blood today is for cancer patients, many of them young children, who are undergoing chemotherapy. We ask that you register for an appointment time in advance. You may do so when contacted by one of their committee members, by contacting Tom Wakeley at 856-424-2085, or by signing up online at the American Red Cross Donor web site (<https://www.redcrossblood.org/>), using sponsor code 'Saint Mary RCC'. Face masks are required.
