Welcoming and Praying for All

How can we welcome Christ back into the heart of a friend or loved one who has fallen from faith? Their road back to a faith life might be long; we have a sacred role in walking with them toward Him. Most importantly, we pray for them. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. Let the joy of being a welcoming disciple enlighten you in word and action. Allow Jesus to work through you to be His welcoming hands. That friend or loved one is a gift from God in your life, to pray for, encourage, and be an inspiring witness of hope.

Peter's Pence Collection - October 3rd/4th, 2020

If you do not have the envelope for Peter's Pence Collection, please put your donation in a regular envelope marked "Peter's Pence" Thank you for your donation.

Stewardship Corner: 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone..." - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a Stewardship life-style may cause you to be "rejected" by others in today's society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well.

From the Pastor's Desk

The Bible on Beads

Dear Parishioners,

In one of my previous parishes, my predecessor as pastor put out a challenge to the parishioners to read the Bible each day. He even distributed bibles to anyone who asked for one. Being a priest who majored in Sacred Scripture in the seminary, how could I not be an advocate of such an initiative?

While I still believe in the importance of reading and reflecting on Sacred Scripture, I also think that our turbulent times necessitate a revival/renewal of an ancient, time-tested practice--praying the daily rosary. After all, these are days of intense spiritual warfare and in such circumstances we need spiritual weapons to do battle.

The history of the holy rosary reveals its power combating heresy (against the Albigensians) and providing victory in battle (the battle of Lepanto). It was requested by our Lady herself during various Church approved Marian apparitions (Fatima). It has tremendous spiritual benefits for those who faithfully pray it.

Simply stated, the rosary traces the highlights of the life, death, and resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ and the life of his Mother Mary as found in Sacred Scripture and Church Tradition. It is, in a sense, the Bible on Beads. We can use the rosary to help us spiritually each day as we recall and reflect on various mysteries of our faith and our salvation.

The repetition of the prayers is meant to help us get into a spiritual rhythm and a reflective mindset. The meditation on the mysteries helps us to recall and reinforce essential truths of our faith. The rosary also seeks the intercession of Our Lady who is essential to the plan for our salvation. She is our spiritual mother guiding us and accompanying us on our journey of life.

If you are unfamiliar with the mechanics of praying the rosary or do not know the various mysteries given for meditation, these can be found very easily online and then printed out for reference. The rosary has evolved with time even adding elements such as the Fatima prayer and the Luminous Mysteries.

The challenge that I put out to all of you who will read this is to pray the holy rosary daily. Maybe it has to start with simply praying a decade each day (before going to bed?), but I hope that it will grow into a devotion that will bring much peace and consolation to your soul. May I suggest that you pray it with the intention of bringing back to the faith someone in your family or among your friends who has left the Catholic faith or no longer practices it? That intention should keep us all busy for quite some time.

October is the month traditionally dedicated to the holy rosary. Please take the time to strengthen, renew or begin this devotion in your personal spiritual life and in the life of your family.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time – The second reading from St. Paul to the Philippians, has most simple instructions for all of us to understand, including our children.

“Brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.”

Philippians 4:8

The world, as we know, is in need of all of these actions and virtues. The parallel between the first reading and the Gospel shows to us, the faithful of today, that as the people of old missed the point of GOD’s message, so can we. I hear it said, “when will we return to what we know as normal?”

Actually, are we sure we want to go back there? To the frenzied life we sort of had to leave behind? The present situation may be a preparation for a “new normal” that we have dreamed or hoped for. We can create that world for us by just putting the words of St. Paul into practice. The new question to be raised is:

“What kind of world can we recreate for our children in the new future ahead of us?”

Prayer for Civility

God of all compassion, You call us to love one another as you have loved us. Help us to see our sisters and brothers as beloved children of God. Help us to fast from incivility and feast on your love for each one of us. Help us to fast from discord and feast on the knowledge that you have created each person in your own image. Help us to fast from fear of those with whom we disagree and feast on the joy community brings us. Help us to fast from timidity when we hear hurtful language and feast on sharing the good news of our God-given dignity. Help us to fast from the desire to win arguments and feast on compassion shared in understanding. Help us to fast from assumptions and feast on listening deeply to the stories of our community. Lord, our God, be with us in this time of fasting and repentance, in this time of quiet and simplicity. Let us turn to you as the source of our joyfulness and our first giver of love. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Oct. 11, 2020 - Matt. 22:1-14

Today's gospel is a parable. "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants twice to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come." A third invitation was sent to whomever they found. The servants brought in everyone they could find - the good and the bad. "But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment? But he was reduced to silence.'" Afterwards he was cast into the darkness.

Commentary:

In Scripture, meals are always occasions of sharing life, memories and intimacy. This meal is different, though. This meal, rather banquet, is by invitation of the king! For now, it is the Eucharist. Later, it's "eternal life." Refusing to come at the king's behest seems incongruous, yet, as in the parable, some say "no". No matter who we are or how we are, we are invited, the good and the bad. ALL are invited, but then...one comes but without a wedding garment! Who would ever turn a friend away for not wearing the proper garment? The king who is focused on Gospel attire would have to turn his friend away. Unless I clothe myself or at least try to be loving, peaceable, humble, patient, good and kind, I simply won't fit in, I won't belong - by my own choice! We are invited to share in the heavenly banquet both now and for all eternity. How do I respond?

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE Corner:

If we claim to love, if we really care about human life, then we, as a nation and as individuals, must act to protect the unborn, infirm, and elderly. We do this by voting for candidates that defend life at all stages.

The formation of conscience includes several elements. First, there is a desire to embrace goodness and truth. For Catholics, this begins with a willingness and openness to seek the truth and what is right by studying Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church as contained in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It is also important to examine the facts and background information about various choices. Finally, prayerful reflection is essential to discern the will of God. Catholics must also understand that if they fail to form their consciences in the light of the truths of the faith and the moral teachings of the Church, they can make erroneous judgements.
