PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Stewardship Corner: 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewards Love the Lord

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.”
– MATTHEW 22:37

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? The good news – it’s not too late to live Stewardship by putting God first in all things in your life.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

As we approach the month of November, we should consider the importance of remembering and praying for the dead. We begin with two notable liturgical celebrations--All Saints and All Souls days. St. Paul reminds us ". . . Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." (Phil. 3:20)

Saints are destined for heaven. Once their lives are finished on earth they will spend eternity enjoying the Beatific Vision--the "Face" of God--in God's time and according to God's plan. Many saints will not be officially canonized and placed on the church calendar. However, the Solemnity of All Saints reminds us of all those intercessors in heaven closely united with God who pray for us. (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, 956) Where they have gone, we hope to follow someday. They have been called the Church Triumphant. Just as we may ask a friend here on earth to say a prayer for us, we can ask the saints in heaven to pray to God for us. Once they reach heaven, they no longer need our prayers but they can certainly pray and make intercession on our behalf.

While we may hope that our deceased relatives and friends are in heaven, we do not have that absolute certainty simply because of our hoping or desiring it to be so. While our Christian funerals are meant to strengthen our hope in eternal life, they are not meant to be canonizations. Only God knows the ultimate destiny of any soul as he alone knows the disposition of the person when he or she dies. Did the person die in the state of grace or not? We can only hope and pray. We should pray.

Still, we can take great consolation if a person receives the last rites of the church--the sacraments of Penance and Reconciliation, the Holy Eucharist and the Anointing of the Sick. I remind people constantly that the sacraments are for the living and we should not wait until a person dies (if at all possible) to call for the priest. If the person is homebound, elderly, on hospice, in the hospital, terminally ill, etc. let the priest know so that a pastoral visit can be arranged. Moreover, we should all try to be living continually in the state of grace and not be conscious of any mortal or serious sin. The sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (confession) is the ordinary means that we have to keep the fullness of God's life (grace) alive in us. God's mercy will be given if we but ask for it!

All Souls Day reminds us that we should pray for the dead. Our prayers can help them if they are in a state of purification that we call purgatory. Remember that if someone is in heaven, they do not need our prayers. If they die not in the state of grace, being unrepentant, obstinate, and alienated from God--thus being in a state of hell or eternal separation from God--our prayers cannot help them. Church teaching encourages us to pray and to offer Mass for the dead. The greatest spiritual gift that we can give to our deceased loved ones is to have a Mass offered for them. The Catholic Mass is a re-presentation of the offering of Jesus himself on the cross. We have no better intercessor with the Father than Jesus who suffered and died for us.

Souls in purgatory, in a state of cleansing or purification--what I like to refer to as the fringes of heaven--can pray for us as we can assist them on their eventual journey to heaven. They have been referred to as the Church Suffering, in regard to their temporarily being kept from the fullness of heaven.

Finally, members of the Church on earth are saints-in-potential. As baptized Christians, part of the Body of Christ, while we are alive in Christ Jesus, our ultimate destiny is heaven. Only our choice to sin gravely, to put ourselves out of the state of God's life, His grace, will keep us from that path. We are the Church Militant, currently battling sin and evil.

"So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones [saints] and members of the household of God. . . ." (Eph. 2:19)

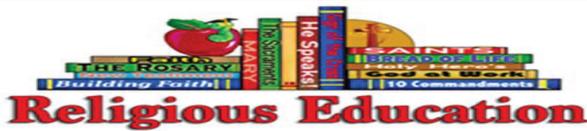

May we live up to our calling!

Fr. Ed Namiotka

What if 2020 isn't cancelled?
 What if 2020 is the year we've been waiting for?
 A year so uncomfortable, so painful, so scary and raw, that it finally forces us to grow.
 A year that screams so loud, finally awakening us from our ignorant slumber.
 A year we finally accept the need for change.
 Declare change. Work for change, become the change. A year we finally band together instead of pushing each other further apart.
 2020 isn't cancelled, but rather, the most important year of them all.
 We don't know what the new normal will look like. But we do know that God is calling us to a new consecration to Him. He is calling us to return to Him with a whole heart and to seek Him with all of our hearts, minds and our souls. We need to find ways to spend more time in relationship with Him through prayer and Scripture reading. We need to find new and innovative ways to reach others for the Kingdom of God. That will be the most important change in the new normal. Everything else will take care of itself. There is little doubt that this virus is shaking everything that can be shaken—every sphere of society—and through it, God is calling us back to him, both as a nation and as individuals. He is calling us to return to our first love. So, what should the new normal look like? It is up to us, humans of today.
 (From The Beacon – Colorado)

Catholic teaching about the dignity of life calls us to oppose torture, unjust war, to prevent genocide and attacks against noncombatants; to oppose racism; to oppose human trafficking; and to overcome poverty and suffering. We revere the lives of children in the womb, the lives of persons dying in war and from starvation, and indeed the lives of all human beings as children of God. Nations are called to protect the right to life by seeking effective ways to combat evil and terror without resorting to armed conflicts except as a last resort after all peaceful means have failed, and to end the use of the death penalty as a means of protecting society from violent crime. We stand opposed to these and all activities that contribute to what Pope Francis has called “a throwaway culture.”

Faithful Citizenship- United States Bishops.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Catholic Charities is here to help - not just this month, but year-round. While 85% of victims are women, it's important for all victims to know how to find help when in an abusive relationship. Our theme this year is: LISTEN. BELIEVE. REFER. Together, we must "break the silence", and we wish to extend a healing hand to those who have been impacted. Catholic Charities is here to offer support, counseling, guidance, informational sessions, resources for parishes, and more. Our trained staff is willing and able to give presentations and customized workshops about domestic violence, signs of abuse, and other crucial topics. During the pandemic, the number of domestic violence incidents has increased, making it even more important for us to talk about this issue in our churches. If you or someone you know is being hurt or in need of help, please reach out to us: 866-682-2166 Or visit our website for more information and resources: <https://catholiccharitiescamden.org/counseling/domestic-violence>

Pope Francis' October Prayer Intention: We pray that by virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Solemnity of All Saints, Nov. 1, 2020 – Matt. 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain and after had sat his disciples came to him. He began to teach them saying: “Blessed are poor spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

Commentary:

The Beatitudes, which we hear in this Gospel passage, are the heart of the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus says that the ones who will be “happy” are those whom society has judged unhappy, even wretched. “The poor in spirit” see through the illusion of wealth and with nothing else to rely on, come to depend on God. The sorrowing bemoan the sad state of a world that neglects God’s wishes. The meek and lowly do not presume to act independently of God. Christians seek happiness by striving to imitate God’s readiness to forgive. They are called to be single-hearted in doing God’s will rather than making self-interest their primary motivation. They must make peace, doing everything in their power to bring this blessing that God holds out to people.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE Corner: Concerning abortion and euthanasia: People of God have to elect public servants who know the difference between serving the public and killing the public, and those who can’t tell the difference don’t belong in public office. Moral principles do not depend on a majority vote. Wrong is wrong, even if everybody is wrong. Right is right, even if nobody is right. Abortion is a taking of a human life; it is wrong no matter what the circumstances.
