THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, NOVEMBER 8, 2020

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

God graces us every Autumn with His glorious paintbrush of yellows, oranges, and reds. This month look around at the fall foliage...give thanks to God for all its wonders. Pick up a leaf and admire its intricacies and color. God's artistry is another attempt to get our attention. Reflect on how you are making the world a brighter place in His Name to your family, friends, and community.

Prayer for Respect of All Life

Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of Your creation. You further ennobled that life when Your Son became one with us in His Incarnation.

Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life.

Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence Your gift of life.

To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for Your precious gift of life or to respect it in others.

We ask this in Jesus' Name.

Amen

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land. 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 8, 2020 Gifted Stewards

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your Stewardship gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

From the Pastor's Desk Election Day

Dear Parishioners,

As I write today (Election Tuesday), people are going to the polls (or may have already voted, like myself) to elect various officials throughout the country. I have no idea what the results will be by the time you read this message in the Sunday bulletin. However, I have a few comments and observations I wish to make regarding the current state of politics in America.

First, I state clearly that I have never been affiliated with any one political party for as long as I have been eligible to vote. While I know that this may prohibit me from voting in certain primary elections, I have found no compelling reason to make a complete allegiance to any political party as they currently stand. My allegiance is and will always be to Almighty God and to my Catholic faith. I publicly endorse no candidate, although I will certainly have leanings toward (and have voted for) those who clearly represent my beliefs as a Roman Catholic. The biggest of these is the right to life issue. We can never support an intrinsically evil action such as the killing of the innocent unborn through abortion.

I do vote regularly and I vote based on the issues, on a candidate's observable moral character and values, on what a candidate and his/her party's platform actually stands for, on a candidate's record of service and past voting on issues, etc. This sometimes makes voting very difficult, considering most candidates without a major party affiliation probably do not have the money or political clout necessary to run a campaign that is actually able to win. Is choosing the lesser of two evils—a position in which we may find ourselves all too often—ever the optimal moral position to be in? However, in this 2020 election, the battle lines seem eminently clear to me.

This being said, I raise the following concerns:

- Enough with the negative campaigning and political mudslinging! If you are going to run a political ad, tell me what you are going to do, not how bad your opponent is! I suppose that negative campaigns must produce a greater result, or they would not be used by so many. But I am truly sick of them! My hope is that there will be a backlash against those proponents of the negative campaigns and that your efforts will backfire.
- Stop lying to the people! Personally, I do not want continually to be told what you are going to do simply to pacify me or to get my vote. If I do not see results or I see broken promises time and again, you simply will not get my vote again. Period. Fool me once, shame on you; fool me twice, shame on me!
- If you are elected to public office, do your jobs! We have a political system that was intended to have a check and balance system. Deliver me from a plethora of executive orders, from activist judges, from a congress that does not do what it is actually elected to do—continually stuck in political gridlock from partisan loyalties rather than the good of the constituents. Deliver me from all abuses of political power, in whatever form they may appear!
- If you do not vote or fail to become informed on the issues, you have no one to blame but yourself! I hope and pray that when they interview people on various TV shows, the people are not as ignorant about social and political matters as they make them out to be. If they really are, God help our country!

Dear news media: please report the news and not continually slant it to meet your own political objectives! Is there such a thing as objective journalism anymore? Does everything have to be seen through a political pundit's eyes? We are intelligent enough to make good decisions if the facts are actually presented and propaganda is not spewed forth continually.

I think that I represent the average American citizen. I did not come from wealth or privilege. Because of my parents, I was provided an excellent education and raised with a decent work ethic. My parents struggled to raise five children, to put food on the table and to make ends meet each week. They taught us the value of the dollar and advised us to live within our means.

Like many Americans, I think that I have become highly disillusioned with our current state of politics and don't know exactly how we are ever going to get out of the mess that we are currently in. May God help us!

The genuine hope that I hold comes from remembering that no matter who is elected to public office, Jesus Christ is still King!

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

The Beatitudes: Meaning and Scrutiny

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.”

The ‘pure in heart’ are those who have been cleansed from within. This is not outward righteousness that can be seen by men, but inward holiness that only God can see. The Bible says in Hebrews 12: 14 that without holiness, no one will see God.

Paraphrase: “Blessed are those who have been purified from the inside out, being made clean and holy, for they will see God.”

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.”

The Bible says we have peace with God through Jesus Christ. Reconciliation through Christ brings restored fellowship (peace) with God. 2nd Corinthians 5: 19-20 says God entrusts us with this same message of reconciliation to take to others.

Paraphrase: “Blessed are those who have been reconciled with God and to others through Jesus Christ and bring this same message of reconciliation to all. All who have peace with God (and others) are His children.”

“Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Just as Jesus faced persecution, so will His followers. Those who endure in faith rather than hide their faith to avoid persecution are genuine followers of Christ.

Paraphrase: “Blessed are those daring enough to openly live for Christ and suffer persecution, for they will receive the Kingdom of heaven.”

Conclusion: Living the beatitudes is actually having lived the commandments first, to the point that they have transformed US into true disciples of JESUS, and thus in His message we find our beatitude. We are all invited to be SAINTS and thus to live the Beatitudes.

Bishops Pastoral on Racism: “Racism comes in many forms. It can be seen in deliberate, sinful acts. In recent times, we have seen bold expressions of racism by groups as well as individuals. All too often, Hispanics and African-Americans, for example, face discrimination in hiring, housing, educational opportunities, and incarceration.”
This interactive discussion on Zoom is for those who desire to learn more about the evils of Racism and how this evil challenges us as individuals and as members of our society. Reverend Ada Renee Williams, Director of Anti-Racism & Racial Equality for the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, will lead a discussion on unconscious racial bias, systemic racism, and the work we need to do to transform ourselves and our society.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, NOVEMBER 8, 2020

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Nov. 15, 2020 - Matt. 25:14-30

“A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them...after a long time the master came back and settled accounts with them...Well done, my good and faithful servant...come, share your master’s joy...for to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich...but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away...”

Commentary:

Being entrusted with responsibility is a great honor and privilege and with that comes responsibility. What are the possessions the master has entrusted to you? I offer for your consideration: love, respect, honor and dignity, service, cultivating relationships and developing the skills and talents that are part of who you are. So where do I live out these responsibilities? In my family life as a loving parent, child or sibling, when I care about my friends and coworkers, or as I do my job earnestly and honestly, when I give the benefit of the doubt to those who cross my path negatively, when I support life—in people, the environment and for all of God’s creatures and creation. WOW! Are you smiling at God’s generosity and trust and delighting in who you have become for God? Listen carefully and you just might hear in your heart of hearts: “Well done, my good and faithful servant!”

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

PRO-LIFE Corner: Vice President Mike Pence said: “We are here simply to decide whether Congress should take the taxpayer dollars of millions of pro-life Americans and use them to fund the destruction of human embryos for research.” Pray for all politicians who have the courage to defend life at all stages.

Upcoming Second Collections

November 22nd: Collection for National Needs

This collection includes 4 outreach programs: Catholic Missions among Black & Native Americans; Catholic Home Missions; Catholic Communications; Catholic University of America.

December 13th: Retired Religious Collection

The Religious Brothers and Sisters have dedicated their lives to the service of the Church. This is our opportunity to say “Thank you” to them.

All Souls Remembrance

You are invited to bring in a small framed picture of a departed loved one during the month of November. Put your photo in the bookcase in the Gathering Space. Please put your name and phone number on the back and pick up all pictures by November 30, 2020. Gary Gadren, Coordinator

Wills and Bequests

Please consider placing St. Thomas More in your will so that your legacy might continue through the important works and ministries of the parish. You or your estate planner can contact St. Thomas More at 856-424-3212.

Culture of Non-Violence

Pope Francis invites Catholics to “make active nonviolence our way of life,” both in the Church and in the world.

Around the world, people and living creatures, along with the delicate artistry of the planet are experiencing a crisis of violence.

The defense Jesus revealed to us is not through physical assault, weapons, or militias or armies, but by active gospel nonviolence, which involves courage, strategy, and strong communities. Nonviolence is a constructive force, an active method and a powerful way of life that challenges injustice and violence without using violence, transforms and resolves conflict, fosters just and peaceful alternatives and seeks the well-being of all. As Pope Francis writes, “A culture of nonviolence is not an unattainable dream, but a path that has produced decisive results. The consistent practice of nonviolence has broken barriers, bound wounds, healed nations”
