Stewardship Reflection: Pentecost Sunday: Stewards learn Everything

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14: 26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want rather than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Our stewardship tells us to pray to the Holy Spirit to put the right words in our mouths when challenged about our faith.

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (No. 78)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

A series of reflections about, professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

Ordinary Time

With the Solemnity of Pentecost Sunday behind us, we enter the liturgical season called Ordinary Time. Or rather, we re-enter it. The first weeks of Ordinary time began just after the Epiphany of our Lord, bringing an end to the Christmas season. Then, after Pentecost (the end of the Easter Season) begins the long stretch of Ordinary Time that will last until Ash Wednesday. This is why, after Pentecost, we do not start with the first Monday of Ordinary Time but (this year) with the seventh—the first six having been celebrated after Epiphany and before Ash Wednesday). Depending on which day of the week Christmas falls on, and on the date of Easter Sunday, there can be as many as thirty-four weeks in Ordinary Time, by far the longest of the liturgical seasons.

What's "Ordinary" About Ordinary Time?

The first definition of “ordinary” given in any dictionary will be something like “having no special or distinctive features” and will provide synonyms such as “uninteresting” and “commonplace”. That will hardly do in the liturgical context. However commonplace and uninteresting the priest may be, it would be blasphemy plain and simple to refer to what happens in the mass as commonplace.

If you read beyond the first definition, you will see that “ordinary” is not so ordinary a word. We don't have space here to ponder the etymology and the more technical definitions. The shorthand explanation is that Ordinary Time marks those weeks outside the seasons that have their own seasonal names (Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter). The majority of days in the Church's calendar are ordered simply by counting. In fact, a good many of the days in this longest of seasons do indeed have very special and distinctive themes. For example, the two Sundays in Ordinary Time immediately following Pentecost are Trinity Sunday and Corpus Christi. And remember, holy days of obligation.

Ordinary Time, Ordinary Lives?

If there is a theme that holds together the Sundays and weekdays of Ordinary time, it would be living out the Christian life, responding to the Grace poured out upon the baptized, practicing the Christian faith. In this time the readings of Scripture and the prayers of the mass urge us to follow Christ, to fight the spiritual battle against our sins, to pray ceaselessly, to give generously, to love sacrificially.

We may notice a sad irony here. This re-entry into Ordinary Time corresponds to the approach of the summer season—a season in which, for many, it is indeed commonplace and ordinary to neglect the most basic practices of a faithful Catholic. It can be a time when leisure takes the form of spiritual forgetfulness, when “vacations” entail vacations from the mass. That is one sort of “ordinary” life and it is tempting to sink comfortably into the evasion: “this is just the way normal people spend their summers.”

But there is a way of life that is ordinary in a truly extraordinary way — a life truly ordered by our identity as Catholic Christians.

STM Youth

We have celebrated 50 days of Easter and conclude the Easter Season with the Feast of Pentecost, which marks the Holy Spirit coming to the Apostles and leaving them with a clarity and a mission to spread the Good News of Jesus. Beginning at Baptism, the Holy Spirit came to you to give you the grace and courage to share Jesus with others. As you were Confirmed and sealed with the Holy Spirit, you were given the strength and understanding to continue to spread the Word of God and show by your words and actions what it means to be a follower of Christ. After the Holy Spirit came to the Apostles...the Apostles were then understood by people who did not speak their language. This reminds us that the Holy Spirit will give us the tools we need to share the Good News of Jesus. If we allow the Holy Spirit to work through us for God's will to be done, we will be able to do great things!

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

The Gospel for The Most Holy Trinity, May 22, 2016 - John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Commentary:

The Gospel reading emphasizes the work of the "Spirit of truth" in the Christian community. Jesus is about to leave his disciples and is making provision for their future. The "Spirit of truth" will guide them throughout the centuries in their efforts to grow in understanding. A striking feature of this passage is its stress on the common working of Jesus, his Father and the Spirit of truth. They possess in common; they act in common. What can the Holy Trinity teach us about community and relationships?

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

The feast of Pentecost reminds us that we in the pro-life movement are called to be channels of God's Word: "Counteracting the culture of death that demands a prophetic spirituality... We speak the prophetic word that challenges society to recognize the unborn as brothers and sisters and to therefore repent of practices and policies that destroy them or put them at risk.
