Stewardship Reflection: Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time -

"The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." Matthew 21:42

Jesus was the corner stone and He was rejected by the religious and political leaders of His day, as well as ordinary citizens.

Living a Stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others in today's society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract strange looks from some. But to others, it is a sign that God is alive and well!

Reflections about professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

The Peace of Christ: a Brief Meditation on Palm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I lack.
In green pastures you let me graze; to safe waters you lead me.
You revive my soul. (vv. 1-2)*

I have read in a children's book that when a flock of sheep is left alone for a long time it will wander aimlessly, until all the sheep are entirely exhausted. They cannot stop and rest, because they instinctively feel helpless against the predator. In fact, when night comes, a shepherd may have to make the sheep rest, gently pulling the legs from under them, so they will lie down.

The sheep cannot rest. Sound familiar? Left alone, they will always be on the move, exhausted by real and imagined dangers. Sound familiar?

Is this why Jesus, the Shepherd of our souls, commands us to rest, charges us to be at peace (Matt. 7:25ff; 11:28ff; John 14:1ff) —the shepherd gently pulling our legs from under us, spiritually speaking?

Physical exhaustion is sometimes inevitable. A good night's sleep, a few days off, can restore the body. But spiritual exhaustion cannot be banished so easily. Spiritual strength cannot be restored by physical relaxations alone. Spiritual exhaustion—showing itself in anxiety, impatience with others, escape into entertainment, addictions, boredom, lust, over-ambition and trying to work one's way into favor with God—gives way only to the gift of God's peace. It is a gift received by faith. He, the Good Shepherd, “revives my soul” only by faith.

Without faith we cannot truly rest. The spiritual logic of this truth is beautifully expressed in Psalm 46:10. “Be still and know that I am God”. It is in knowing that God alone is God (and so I am not God!) that I find stillness, near the restful waters flowing from God's love.

*You guide me along the right path, for the sake of your name.
Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
no evil will I fear, for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff will give me comfort. (vv. 3-4)*

The Shepherd's rod is his weapon against the predator. With his staff he guides the sheep safely along the right pathway (v. 4). The rod is his judgment; the staff is his promise. Which means that his Cross is at once his rod and his staff. So it is that, in many artistic representations of Christ's resurrection, He comes victorious from the tomb, carrying a cross in his right hand.

St. Paul (perhaps recalling Psalm 23?) speaks of the “peace of God that surpasses all understanding” (Phil. 4:7). It is a peace that does not abandon us even when circumstances betray us, even when we must travel through the “valley of the shadow of death” (v. 4.)

Parish Religious Education

The Parish is a “Family”. A family, made up of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ and his message. It is a family whose arms and hearts are open to receive others. All baptized have the responsibility to give time, talent and resources to support the “Parish Family” and from it to receive grace through the sacraments and the faith support of the community. In a regular family there are different people, sometimes much alike and at times very different. Yet, it is still “family”. The same is for the Church; we may be all very different but with the same Father in heaven. The one thing that binds us together is the “LOVE of the FATHER”, through JESUS in the Eucharist.

Parents, consider taking your children to MASS; it is the parish family gathering around JESUS and the Eucharist. Nothing in this world is EQUAL to, or more important than JESUS in the EUCHARIST, absolutely nothing!

During the months of Oct. & Nov. we have the following meetings scheduled:

Sunday, October 8 – Home and summer study Parents Meeting

Sunday, October 15- Second Grade Parents Meeting in the chapel

Sunday, October 29 –8th Grade Parents/Students Meeting in the chapel

Sunday, November 5 – 7th grade parents/students meeting in the chapel

All parents meetings are a required part of the Religious Education Program and will be held on Sundays after the 10:00 MASS.

Questions, comments, suggestions – please let us know.

Blessings. Sr. Clare Sabini 856-424-321 ext. 106

WE ARE STILL IN URGENT, DIRE NEED OF A 7TH GRADE CATECHIST.

I am sure there is someone out there receiving the call in their heart right now! Who knows, maybe the call comes in the form of a special, different “tweet”....If YOU happen to hear God’s special invitation or experience a special “tweet” to serve at our parish in teaching 7th grade, please call 424-3212 X 106. AMEN

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Oct. 15, 2017 - Matt. 22:1-14

Today's gospel is a parable. "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants twice to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come." A third invitation was sent to whomever they found. The servants brought in everyone they could find - the good and the bad. "But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment? But he was reduced to silence.' Afterwards he was cast into the darkness.

Commentary:

In Scripture, meals are always occasions of sharing life, memories and intimacy. This meal is different, though. This meal, rather banquet, is by invitation of the king! For now, it is the Eucharist. Later, it's "eternal life." Refusing to come at the king's behest seems incongruous, yet, as in the parable, some say - no. No matter who we are or how we are, we are invited, the good and the bad. ALL are invited, but then...one comes but without a wedding garment! Who would ever turn a friend away for not wearing the proper garment? The king who is focused on Gospel attire would have to turn his friend away. Unless we clothe ourselves, or at least try to be loving, peaceable, humble, patient, good and kind, I simply won't fit in, I won't belong - by my own choice! We are invited to share in the heavenly banquet both now and for all eternity. How do I respond?

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Silence hides the truth. Speaking up exposes falsehood. What have you done to speak up against the horrors of abortion and Planned Parenthood? If your answer is nothing, then you need to educate yourself and speak out to stop these atrocities.

Al MacElrath - Pro-Life Coordinator 779-7130

Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be at the doors of the church next weekend accepting your donations of non-perishable foodstuffs and any monetary contributions you wish to make. Thank you for assisting them in their mission to feed the hungry.
