Introducing the Revised Roman Missal

“Glory to God in the Highest”

Corinna Laughlin and D. Todd Williamson

The Gloria, an ancient hymn dating to the early Church, is prayed every Sunday except during Advent and Lent, as well as on solemnities and feasts of the Lord. The hymn brings together images and phrases from Scripture and Tradition. It begins with the words of the angels to the shepherds on the night of Christ's birth: “Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will” (ICEL; see Luke 2:14). Then we sing, “We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory . . .” Our praise to God cannot be contained in one word, but overflows in many words of praise. Then we call on the Lord in a crescendo of titles for God: “Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father.” The Gloria then moves to a litany in which we implore Christ's mercy on us, and concludes with a great crescendo of praise, acknowledging who Christ is: the holy one, the Lord, the Father's only Son. In the Gloria, we raise, with one voice, the song of the angels.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for the proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday.

Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 31, 2011 - Matt. 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." (Jesus then blessed the two fish and five loaves of bread they had and fed five thousand people. There were twelve wicker baskets of food left after all had eaten).

Commentary:

Jesus is mourning the death of John the Baptist. But even though he is troubled, Jesus is aware of the needs of those around him. Instead of focusing on his own concerns, Jesus reaches out to heal and to feed a great crowd. Jesus continues to feed the poor and the hungry through his Church. The Christian community is commanded to feed the hungry in its midst. The Eucharist would be an empty ritual if it didn't motivate people to do what Jesus did.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

We do not begin life as free and autonomous individuals. We are entirely dependent on others for our very existence. We are born into families—the "schools of love" where, over time, we learn to forgo the immediate satisfaction of every self-centered desire and we find true, lasting joy in bringing good and happiness to others.

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."
(Romans 8:28)

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. However, when we wholeheartedly place our trust in God and follow our
