Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Second Collection TODAY! Retired Religious Fund

“Donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious have a far-reaching impact,” said Sr. Stephanie Still, the executive director of the National Religious Retirement Office. “Most importantly, they help communities care for aging members, but they also underwrite initiatives aimed at addressing the underlying causes of the funding shortages. We are overwhelmed by the ongoing generosity toward the annual appeal and by the love and thanksgiving for the service of our elder religious.”

Please give generously to this collection for Retired Religious.

The Promise of Advent: The Coming of the King

9:00 am Saturday, December 15, 2018

Fr. King will lead a discussion on the expectation of Advent, seen through the lens of the Old Testament Prophets and liturgical readings. We will focus on how Israel's longing for a Savior is still important for us today. The program will begin with 9:00 am Mass and include talks, question and answer, time for reflection, and refreshments. Please call the Parish Office (856-424-3212) to register

The collection for Sunday, December 2 2018, was $8,406.00 from 160 donors. We thank you for your consistent generosity.

“... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

Stewardship Quotes:

1. A checkbook is a theological document; it will tell you who and what you worship. (Billy Graham)
2. Wealth shines in giving rather than in hoarding; for the miser is hateful whereas the generous man is applauded. (Boethius, Roman statesman and Christian martyr)
3. People go through three conversions: their head, their heart, and their pocketbook. Unfortunately, not all at the same time. (Martin Luther)
4. Never measure your generosity by what you give, but rather by what you have left. (Bishop Fulton J. Sheen)
5. Remember this—you can't serve God and money, but you can serve God with money. (Selwyn Hughes, English pastor and author.)

THE CATHOLIC FAITH IN SLOW MOTION (No. 120)

Praying, Thinking, and Professing the Faith of the Church

Fr. Phillip M Johnson

ADVENT

Advent is perhaps the most counter-cultural among the liturgical seasons. While the world around us frantically launches the “Christmas season” earlier and earlier, the Church observes a kind of pre-Christmas lent, a time of prayerful waiting and spiritual preparation. The first announcement of Advent is not the coming of the Christ Child; it is Christ's final advent. “He will come to judge the living and the dead.” We prepare for Christmas by preparing for the end of the world! As the child “just can't wait” for the coming of Christmas, so child-like faith longs for the final advent of Jesus.

Longing For the Unimaginable . . .

But can I really learn such longing? Can I learn to honestly pray with the first generation of Christians, Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus!? Why would we long for the end of the world as we know it? Because the “end of the world,” according to the promise of Christ, will bring the fulfillment of our true End, our true destiny, our ever-new beginning. It will bring the vindication of love, the redeeming of every “small” act of love that in this old world dies unrecorded, buried in obscurity. Truth will finally shine and falsehood be exposed; unfairness will be righted. Those who have kept faith through suffering in obscurity and ridicule will be honored. Those who have sown the seeds of violence, hatred, and godlessness will face the truth or be banished. The humble will be surprised by their exaltation, the loveless shocked by the embrace of Love. Whatever is good in us will be perfected, whatever is evil in us purged away. We will at last know the joy of being all we are meant to be. Our children and all God's little ones will then be loved as they ought to be loved. In this End – and this will surely be the highlight of heaven and the summary of all joy – the Crucified One will at last shine on the redeemed. And God will be “everything to everyone” (1 Cor. 15:28).

A Fearful Hope, a Hopeful Fear . . .

But “he will come to judge. . .” Is this promise of the End not a terrifying threat? “It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God” (Heb. 10:31). In the Christian life, for the time being, hope and fear dwell together, and one does not banish the other. Because judgement means not only vindication, but “passing judgement”. Judgement means sorting out, separation, one on this side, the other on that side, acceptance or rejection, a final either-or (Matt. 25:31-46).

This holy fear is in the service of God's grace. It finally gives us courage to repent. It teaches us to accept now God's right to judge, to willingly stand ahead of time in the search light of God's judgement (the confessional!). For we all have in us that which must be separated out and “discarded” for the sake of our true End (1 John 1:10). After all, we cannot enter heaven half-heartedly.

Nevertheless, as we acknowledge our sins and cast ourselves on God's mercy, fear bows before hope. And finally, “love casts out fear” – not our imperfect love of God, but God's perfect love for us in Jesus Christ (1 John 4:10, 18). God's judgement, humbly accepted, drives us under the shelter of Christ's Cross. And this is our hope: He comes to judge the living and the dead. The Crucified One is our judge. Our End is in the hands of sacrificial Love.

For Our Children

Sessions INTERGENERATIONAL ACTIVITY –

Tuesday, Dec. 18. 4:30 and 6:30 pm.
An intergenerational activity is the opportunity for families and our children/students to see Faith in Action. At the 4:30 session the children will presents the Nativity Story, narrated and acted by them. At the 6:30 session the “Jesse Tree” will be presented. COME AND PRAY WITH OUR CHILDREN Our Christmas presentations desire to inspire and help us, like children, to experience the JOY of Christmas.

The Readings for this Second Sunday of Advent are very encouraging, and call us to higher values and ideals. The words of JOHN the Baptist addressed to the people of his days are also addressed to us TODAY: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” Figuratively, we have paths to straighten out in our life, mountains to climb and get beyond; winding paths that tend to get us lost, to straighten up and out; some rough ways may need to be levelled. All this requires our effort and active involvement in order to give the Holy Spirit free access to all that he can make anew in US this Advent.

“Your life is your message to the world. Make sure it's inspiring”

Sr. Clare Sabini

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT, DECEMBER 9, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Advent, December 16, 2018 – Luke 3:10-18

The crowds asked John the Baptist, "What should we do?" John said to them, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" John answered, "Stop collecting more than what is prescribed." All were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Commentary:

John's brand of advice may not have sounded like good news to those who asked for it. He urged the crowds to give away what they had in surplus to those who were in need. John basically told people to be generous and just, to clean up their acts, and to wait for the One who was coming just behind him. This is still good advice.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "If it be necessary to go against the current of what is sometimes being thought and said on all sides, then let us never grow weary of repeating it—All human life must be absolutely respected: In fact, abortion and euthanasia are murder." - Pope Paul, VI

The Philadelphia Archdiocesan Children's Choir and Merion Mercy Academy Choir participated in the Festival of Lessons and Carols on Sunday, December 2nd.
