Stewardship Quotes:

1. He that gives all, though but little, gives much; because God looks not on the quantity of the gift, but to the quality of the givers. (Frances Quarles)
2. Seen on a billboard: A lot of people are willing to give the credit, but not too many are willing to give God the cash.
3. One of the incredible truths about gratitude is that it is impossible to feel both the positive emotion of thankfulness and a negative emotion...Gratitude births only positive feeling—love, compassion, joy and hope...As we get older, we get schooled in our mistakes and learn to focus on what's not right, what is lacking, missing, inadequate, and painful. That's why gratitude is so powerful. It helps us to return to our natural state of joyfulness where we notice what's right...Gratitude reminds us to be like plants, which turn toward, not away from, the light. (MJ Ryan)
4. I have held many things in my hands and I have lost them all. But whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess.
5. Remember: the most important things in life aren't things and the best things in life are always free.

A Prayerful Opportunity not to be Missed

The Season of Lent is fast approaching. It is a time in the Church Year which calls each of us to deepen our relationship with God. One of the prayerful opportunities our parish offers during Lent is participation in our Small Christian Communities. During the 6 weeks of Lent these communities meet once a week for 1 1/2 hours to read, reflect and share on the upcoming Sunday Scriptures. Their Faith Sharing leads to commitments to reach out in various ways to serve those in the community who are in need.

The following are reflections by current participants in St. Thomas More's SCC.

For me, attending SCC meetings is a great exercise for my soul. It has definitely enriched my faith. SCC has provided me with the support and encouragement of a wonderful group, whose friendship and inspiration I greatly value and appreciate. Just as we are encouraged to adopt a regular exercise routine for our physical well-being, I urge everyone at STM to join one of our wonderful SCC groups for your spiritual health and happiness. Joining Shirley Kane's SCC was one of the best decisions I've ever made!!

Chris Betson-Smith

SCC has been a place for my personal spiritual growth. Sharing our life stories is both inspirational and supportive. It makes me realize we are all on this journey together and we need to talk about God on the way. Our language reflects our lives. In our SCC the words we may have forgotten or under use- -grace, kindness, love, patience, faithfulness, gratitude, sin, scripture, prayer---are part of our conversation and remind me to think about them again throughout my day.

Lois Udicious

Small Christian Communities give us the opportunity to share our faith. I think most people want to share their faith but they feel reluctant to do so. Many do not have the opportunity provided where they can share. In Small Christian Communities, everyone is able to share as much or as little as they like. Community members bring this faith-filled experience home to their spouses and children, to their workplaces and to all personal interactions.

To be able to understand JESUS' message in this Sunday's Gospel, it is necessary to understand HIS true meaning of the word "love". For us it is a very emotional word, implying affection and intimacy. For us to "love" is often to "be in love with", or "to be attracted to". But JESUS is not telling us to be in love with our enemies. He is not even telling us to like them. The meaning of the word the Gospel uses is from the Greek, which is a special kind of love. It is not the physically-expressed love for others, nor is it the love of close friends. It is rather an attitude of positive regard toward others by which we wish for their well-being. (from www.sacredspace.le) Perhaps words of the late Mother Teresa are appropriate here: "Love, to be true, has to hurt. I must be willing to give whatever it takes not to harm other people and, in fact, to do good to them. This requires that I be willing to give until it hurts. Otherwise, there is no love in me and I bring injustice, not peace, to those around me." To put Jesus' teaching into effect requires that we change our conventional thinking at the deepest level, to see things JESUS' way. Once we do that, it becomes much easier. These are some of the most important lessons we may ever teach our children.

On Sunday, March 31, 2019, join Bishop Sullivan along with priests, religious, our seminarians and many other people from throughout the diocese at Washington Lake Park (626

We need our parishioners, all ages, to say yes to this intergenerational day. We need YOU. ## SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, FEBRUARY 24, 2019

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, March 3, 2019 – Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye. A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit."

Commentary:

Today's Gospel shares with Matthew's Sermon on Mount the saying of the speck and the plank and the tree and its fruits, which is an indication that they were in the common source used by Luke and Matthew. In every community there are people who are quick to point out other people's faults. This self-righteousness is not only annoying; it is dangerous. It can blind these self-appointed guardians of moral conduct to their own, often serious, shortcomings. They are warned here in graphic terms. In the end, the test of one's goodness is one's own conduct.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: The question is not "When can a baby live outside the womb?" The question is "When can a baby be allowed to live inside the womb?" Pray to end abortion and euthanasia.

Our Parish Mission is March 18th to the 20th, 2019. Fr. Vinny Fortunato, OFM, Cap. will be our Mission Director. The theme of the Mission will be "Lent: A New Springtime."
