Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

Prayer Shawl Ministry Meeting
Thursday, March 14th at 9:30am in Classroom #1. All are welcome to attend.

MISSION

Our Parish Mission is 7:00 pm March 18th to the 20th, 2019. Fr. Vinny Fortunato, OFM, Cap. will be our Mission Director. The theme of the Mission will be "Lent: A New Springtime."

The collection for Sunday, March 3, 2019 was $8,211.00 from 164 donors. We thank you for your continued generosity to our parish.

"... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land."
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

Stewardship Quotes:

1. You can't take it with you, but you can send it on ahead. Anonymous
2. Jesus was radical in his teaching about what is needed to maintain life. He repeatedly called for a simplification in lifestyle that is not driven by materialism. When the disciples responded to Christ's call to follow, they abandoned everything. Luke Gasho
3. What I spent is gone. What I kept is lost. But what I gave will be mine forever.
4. I do not believe one can settle how much we ought to give. I am afraid the only safe rule is to give more than we can spare. In other words, if our expenditure on comforts, luxuries, amusements, etc., is up to the standard common among those with the same income as our own, we are probably giving away too little. If our charities do not at all pinch or hamper us, I should say they are too small. There ought to be things we should like to do and cannot do because our charitable expenditures excludes them.
C. S. Lewis

Reflections about thinking, praying, professing and living the Faith of the Church

Pillars of Catholic Penitential Practice: Prayer

Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer: I do not know who first called them the “pillars of Lent”, but it is an apt image. These disciplines stand together in supporting the spiritual life—contracting the boundaries of our consumption, expanding the boundaries of our generosity, and enlarging our capacity for intimacy with God. It is Jesus himself who binds them together: “when you fast.... when you pray.... when you give alms...” (see Matt 6:1) In Lent, we consider these disciplines in their penitential nature. Here we consider prayer.

Saying 'Yes' to Prayer . . .

Every “yes” implicitly requires a “no”. What must we refuse in order to enter more deeply into the discipline of prayer? More prayer means less what? — T.V, computer games, the gym, work, socializing, drinking or eating or sleeping too much? Each of us must decide. A great spiritual guide once said that many Christians do not progress in prayer simply because they are too comfortable, but of course we can do something about that. “What will I give up for Lent so that I may pray more faithfully?” The “no” is for the sake of the “yes”.

Saying our Prayers . . .

Prayer is an act. As the Nike commercial used to say, “Just do it!” For most of us prayer begins with a plan for “saying our prayers”. For this we need a simple printed or memorized order of prayers. It will, of course include the Our Father, the Hail Mary, along with morning and evening prayers. For many, the rosary is the most fruitful routine. Surely the routine should include a passage of Holy Scripture. And God always welcomes our own words, and our needy silences when there are no words. We should not expect great emotional benefit from what is essentially a simple act of obedience. We do not have to feel holy. The act itself is an offering to God that will bear fruit in our lives. The urgent thing is to keep the discipline. For this simple act of faithfulness can open the way to a great grace.

Holy Intimacy . . .

“When you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you” (Matt. 6:6). Saying our prayers routinely, faithfully, over time—and perhaps just when we are most bored with the “dryness” of our hearts—we are quietly rewarded. The words of the Our Father grow heavy with intimacy. In and through and with the words of the set prayer, we now recognize the holy Other in the room. The recitation has become a conversation. The secret is now revealed. Our Father in heaven, who is “in secret” is with us.

The Gift of God . . .

“And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.” This is the promise of Christ himself. But what is the reward the Father gives? Perhaps it will be exactly what your desire, the temporal help you needed. Our Father does not despise our prayers for simple gifts. He too seeks our earthly wellbeing. He can, of course, dispense his blessings from on high (for is he not the source of every good?). But what he most wants for us—as our prayers will teach us—is the gift of his nearness. The gift God desires most to give us is God. And it is in this secret intimacy of prayer that he reveals to us his Son, who is the Gift of our salvation. Now that secret “room” of prayer is the anticipation of heaven itself.

Among Catholics there are those who dread this time of LENT as something burdensome. Some look forward to it as an opportunity for dieting. Other take it as a time of “self-flogging” for their sins. But, the benefits of a well-spent Lenten Season are beyond all that. We look at JESUS as HE is tempted in the desert. As God, HE had it all, He could have had it all. But HIS task here on earth was to show us that real strength comes from self-discipline, self-control. It is about choosing the RIGHT THING TO DO, under God’s own rules. These rules are meant to keep us spiritually safe, mentally sound, and physically healthy. It sounds nice, but it is not always easy or practical by our own estimation. Yet true success in the spiritual/moral life is based on self-control. To be able to teach our children these values, we need to have some experience with them, in fasting from those things that are not good for us and pick up some things that are better; practice charity through the Works of Mercy; pray unceasingly and remain united with JESUS in these 40 days, especially in receiving HIM in the Eucharist. FINALLY, INSPIRE OUR CHILDREN TO TAKE ON THE SAME JOURNEY THIS LENT AS WE GUIDE THEM THROUGH. Sr. Clare Sabini

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT, MARCH 10, 2019

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Lent, March 17, 2019 – Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem...While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over Peter, James, and John, and they became frightened...Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

Commentary:

Entering the darkness is always a scary business. Abram did it and encountered the presence of God. The three disciples did it and heard a mysterious voice reveal the true identity of Jesus. The only way to the radiant light of God is by way of the darkness. But it's the way we most fear and resist, because we can't find our own way or control what happens to us there. Loss of control, or what we might call total surrender to God's purposes, is precisely the point. As long as we pursue our agenda and say, "My will be done," we get what we want. We get earth. We get stuff. We also inherit the legacy of a selfish, loveless history. When we pray, "Thy will be done," the landscape changes. We enter the darkness to emerge in a glorious reality we call the reign of God. The light is much better there, and we can finally see rightly.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Even if abortion were made easy or painless for everyone, it wouldn't change the bottom line—Abortion kills children. It is destroying our future generations.
