The Stations of the Cross also known as Via Crucis or Way of the Cross, is a devotion that has a long history, going back to the origins of Christianity in Jerusalem. Some ancient sources even say that Mary, Jesus' Mother, traced the steps from her home near Jerusalem to Calvary. Pilgrims visiting the Holy Land will definitely get to follow the Via Dolorosa (the Way of Sorrow), walking from the house of Pontius Pilate to Calvary, as Jesus did. While 2000 years ago the area was rural, today the "Via Dolorosa" is within the city, through neighborhoods which are not Christian, and reaches the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, where the original tomb of Jesus is still preserved. For the pilgrims, taking this journey can be quite an astounding thing. The Stations of the Cross are prayed on Good Friday through the streets of towns and cities across the world. In Rome the Holy Father usually participates in the Stations at the Colosseum. Thousands of people from all over the world participate, crowding the streets adjacent. EWTN does show them on Good Friday. Even though we are not there in person, sitting quietly in front of the TV and taking it all in can be moving. This devotion, when well organized and prayed with FAITH and union with JESUS, has the power to make us better understand the cost of HIS Sacrifice and cause us to move forward on our conversion of soul, mind and heart. As a Lenten practice, it helps us to recall that first Good Friday and bring us to the excitement JESUS' RESURRECTION.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION, APRIL 14, 2019

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord, April 21, 2019 – John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed.

Commentary:

Mary Magdalene ran from the empty tomb to tell Peter and John the troubling news. In turn, Peter and John ran to see for themselves. That first Easter morning, everyone was in a great hurry to share the burden, to seek understanding, to see for themselves. Fast forward to today - if any of us is in a hurry, it may be only to get a decent parking place at church, or to get a seat at the local breakfast buffet. It's good to be reminded that the first Easter was a rush to comprehend an impossible event. We might spare a few moments in contemplation of what made a grieving woman hitch up her skirts and dash through the dark, or grown men race like boys to embrace the mystery.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Would you be "pro-choice" if choice meant someone had a right to choose to kill you? It's actually pretty easy to be "pro-choice" as long as you're not the one being chosen to die. Babies have no choice and no voice in this matter. We must be their voice. Speak out in defense of life.
