Stewardship Reflection: 2nd Sunday of Lent Stewardship Challenge

"Here I am!" he answered" Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, "Here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say, "Here I am, Lord": when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us.

Stewardship is not always easy. Lift us, Lord when we are uncomfortable and vulnerable.

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (No. 110)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

Praying, Professing, Living, and Thinking the Faith the Faith of the Church

Pillars of Catholic Penitential Practice: Prayer

Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer: I do not know who first called them the “pillars of Lent”, but it is an apt image. These disciplines stand together in supporting the spiritual life—contracting the boundaries of our consumption, expanding the boundaries of our generosity, and enlarging our capacity for intimacy with God. It is Jesus himself who binds them together: “when you fast.... when you pray.... when you give alms...” (see Matt 6:1ff). In Lent, we consider these disciplines in their penitential nature. Last week we reflected on fasting; here we consider prayer.

Saying 'Yes' to Prayer . . .

Every “yes” implicitly requires a “no”. What must we refuse in order to enter more deeply into the discipline of prayer? More prayer means less what? — t.v., computer games, the gym, work, socializing, drinking or eating or sleeping too much? Each of us must decide. A great spiritual guide once said that many Christians do not progress in prayer simply because they are too comfortable, but of course we can do something about that. “What will I give up for Lent so that I may pray more faithfully?” The “no” is for the sake of the “yes”.

Saying our Prayers . . .

Prayer is an act. As the Nike commercial used to say, “Just do it!” For most of us prayer begins with a plan for “saying our prayers”. For this we need a simple printed or memorized order of prayers. It will, of course include the Our Father, the Hail Mary, along with morning and evening prayers. For many, the rosary is the most fruitful routine. Surely the routine should include a passage of Holy Scripture. And God always welcomes our own words, and our needy silences when there are no words. We should not expect great emotional benefit from what is essentially a simple act of obedience. We do not have to feel holy. The act itself is an offering to God that will bear fruit in our lives. The urgent thing is to keep the discipline. For this simple act of faithfulness can open the way to a great grace.

Holy Intimacy . . .

“When you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you” (Matt. 6:6). Saying our prayers routinely, faithfully, over time—and perhaps just when we are most bored with the “dryness” of our hearts—we are quietly rewarded. The words of the Our Father grow heavy with intimacy. In and through and with the words of the set prayer, we now recognize the holy Other in the room. The recitation has become a conversation. The secret is now revealed. Our Father in heaven, who is “in secret” is with us.

The Gift of God . . .

“And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.” This is the promise of Christ himself. But what is the reward the Father gives? Perhaps it will be exactly what your desire, the temporal help you needed. Our Father does not despise our prayers for simple gifts. He too seeks our earthly wellbeing. He can, of course, dispense his blessings from on high (for is he not the source of every good?). But what he most wants for us—as our prayers will teach us—is the gift of his nearness. The gift God desires most to give us is God. And it is in this secret intimacy of prayer that he reveals to us his Son, who is the Gift of our salvation. Now, that secret “room” of prayer is the anticipation of heaven itself.    + + +

The 8th graders, having been recognized officially as candidates for Confirmation, are now assiduously working on their final preparation. Let us remember them, their sponsors and parents in our prayers. May the Holy Spirit fill them in a way that they will never desert their faith.

Our second graders made their First Penance on Saturday, February 24th. Let us remember them in our prayers also, as they continue their journey toward First Eucharist in May.

Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle of Manila, Philippines was the main speaker at the Mid-Atlantic Conference on Church Ministries in Baltimore. He is the president of Catholic Charity International and he travels to much of the world where refugees are encamped. Drawing from the world situation on migration and refugees, one of the meaningful concepts he shared with us is about our DNA, not in a biological sense, but in another sense. We all have the DNA of GOD, for GOD made us in his own image and likeness, breathing into us his own Spirit of life. WE have Divine DNA. If we really believed this point how different would we be? It is a good examination for this Lenten Season. We all also have HUMAN DNA which makes us sisters and brothers to humanity, all of humanity has common DNA "divine and human" Also, in our ancestry we find that all of us have the DNA of migrants and refugees. It is important to pass on these concepts to our children who are growing up in a multitude of cultures. "LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF"

From the Bishop: Lenten Action for Dreamers: Congressional Call-in Campaign "On Monday, February 26th, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops is asking all of us to call our Senators and Representatives to urge them to pass legislation that protects Dreamers, young people without immigration status who were brought to the United States by their parents. Dreamers are our immigrant brothers and sisters." In our Diocese, Bishop Dennis Sullivan asks that you contact Senators Booker and Menendez, as well as Representatives LoBiondo and Norcross and ask them to support a bipartisan common-sense and humane solution for Dreamers; to protect Dreamers from deportation and provide them with a path to citizenship; and to reject proposals that undermine family immigration or protections for unaccompanied children. Let our representatives know that as Catholics, we know that families are not chains, but a blessing to be protected. To learn more, go to: www.camdendiocese.org/dreamers.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT FEBRUARY 25, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Lent, March 4, 2018 - John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture; Zeal for your house will consume me.

Commentary:

The dramatic action of Jesus—driving out the merchants and money changers—is not the most shocking feature of this Sunday's gospel. Not only does Jesus cleanse the Temple, he replaces it. The place of God's presence among people is no longer a building but the "temple of his body." In Jesus we encounter the living God.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: How does this statement relate to us? "I was trying to figure out which is worse, ignorance or apathy. Then I realized I don't know and I don't care." Such apathy and ignorance is why abortion is still "legal" today. Al MacElrath— 779-7130

New Society of St. Vincent de Paul television series premieres on EWTN at 4:30pm on March 4th. This 10 episode series highlights the good works of the St. Vincent de Paul Society across the country.

"The Society of St. Vincent DePaul puts an emphasis on growing in faith through doing good works. We hope that television viewers who see 'Our Faith in Action' will feel we have answered their need for how they can put their own faith into action and will be moved to join the Society in their communities, says National SVdP President, Ralph Middlecamp.
