Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Definitions of Stewardship

It is difficult to teach or practice Stewardship, unless we have a clear understanding of exactly what stewardship is. If we wish to embrace stewardship, we must gradually learn to embrace every definition or aspect of stewardship.

Gratitude— Stewardship is living a life of gratitude— taking the time every day to recognize the gifts that God has given and to be grateful for them.

Giving Back— Stewardship is returning a portion of our gifts to God. The gifts we return are our time, our talent and our treasure. We return these gifts not because God or our Church needs them but because we feel an overwhelming need to show our love and gratitude to God.

Transformative— Stewardship is transformative. Once we embrace the stewardship message it changes the way we look at every decision we make.

Stewardship becomes a total way of life.

For Our Children

 Religious Education calendar for the 2018/2019 school year can be found on our Web Site: <http://stthomasmorenj.org/> *****

The spiritual/religious/moral formation of our children is one of the most compelling tasks we adults have in our parish family whether we are raising some now or have “been there and done that.” Children are most vulnerable creatures needing our assistance. The Parish Religious Education/Formation attempts to assist parents in this AWESOME TASK. It is a shared task needing the two sides’ collaboration.

WE ARE IN NEED OF A 5th GRADE CATECHIST AND ASSISTANT, ONE 8th GRADE ASSISTANT AND A FEW MONITORS, ALL FOR THE 6:30 SESSION. IF YOU ARE READING THESE WORDS, PLEASE CONSIDER HELPING OR PASS THE MESSAGE ON TO SOMEONE....

Best Wishes to all teachers, children at all grade levels. May this year be one of great learning, broader understanding, and deep FAITH, that will put all else in its proper perspective. The HOME, the FAMILY are the first school. What is learned there is, and will be, the foundation of a person’s life. “JESUS, may our homes be like yours in Nazareth and our learning emulate yours, as you listened and spoke in the synagogue at Nazareth and the Temple in Jerusalem. May our school always reflect the splendor of all creation, and honor and respect all children/students made by God, our Father, in your own image and likeness.” JESUS, we trust in you. Amen!” Sr. Clare Sabini

Bury the Dead

Death for many people is terrifying, but as Christians we do not need to fear death because we have a risen Christ who died for our sins, so that we may live in paradise with Him forever and ever. Because we have the Resurrection, we’re a Resurrection people and we must not let death overrule us with fear or anxiety.

Make sure that when a loved one has passed away you do your best to attend the funeral or wake. It’s very important we celebrate life here on earth and that we pray for the repose of their souls.

Volunteer at a hospice program.

Find ways to help a family in our parish that is grieving over a loved one, whether it is by cooking a dish for them to eat, or babysitting.

Pray outside of an abortion clinic and pray for the souls of the precious babies who lost their lives.

Volunteer to help a widow or widower with housework or yardwork.

Try to visit the cemeteries of your family members or friends who have died and pray for the repose of their souls.

Next time you drive by a cemetery, instead of holding your breath, say this prayer: “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.”

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Sept. 16, 2018 - Mark 8:27-35

Jesus asked his disciples: "Who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ."... Jesus began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly...and be killed, and rise after three days... Jesus summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

Commentary:

After this scene, there is a turning point in Mark's Gospel. From now on, Jesus will be trying to make the disciples (and us) understand that not only will he suffer and die, but that anyone who wants to be a true follower will have to do the same. As Messiah, Jesus will accept his Father's will, becoming vulnerable and completely powerless at the end. The more we can stand to be vulnerable and powerless in life, the better we will be ready to step across to death. Maybe vulnerability is the "cross" that Jesus, the Messiah, is asking us to bear.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner:

"The hottest places in hell are reserved for those who, having the power and responsibility to oppose evil, did nothing to extinguish it." Work/Pray to end abortion and euthanasia.
