PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

“Mass to Celebrate New Life in honor of St. Gerard” will take place on Wednesday, October 17, 2018 at St. Bridget Parish in Glassboro. For more information and directions call Mary Ann at 609-707-1725 or St. Bridget’s Parish Office 856-881-2753. This Mass is also for those who are expecting or adopting a child. Pregnant moms and babies born in the last year will receive a special blessing.

Thank You Sandwich Makers!

Even with a reduced crew, we made 430 sandwiches last month! Thanks to all of you who were there! We will be making sandwiches in the Hall on Wednesday, October 24th after the 9:00 am Mass.

The collection for Sunday, September 30th, was $6,147.00 from 145 donors. We thank you for your consistent generosity.

“... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

Definitions of Stewardship

And finally:

Counter Cultural– Stewardship is counter-cultural. While society encourages us to continually strive for more and more, stewardship helps us to recognize that we already have more than enough. In fact, we have enough to share.

Discipleship– Stewardship is discipleship. We strive to put God first in all things and to follow where our Lord might lead.

Mystery and Manners

For her stories and novels, Flannery O'Connor won three O. Henry Awards, and her collected writings won the National Book Award. But I've stolen my title from a collection of her non-fiction writings, entitled Mystery and Manners. O'Connor was a southerner, so she was mighty interested in manners. And she was a devout Catholic Christian, so she had a deep sensitivity to the mystery of life under the judgment and mercy of God. I feel pretty sure that the late Miss O'Connor (she died in her late 30's in 1964) would not mind my stealing her title to introduce some thoughts about reverence at the mass.

Manners are about how we act in the presence of others, showing our respect, or lack of respect for the presence of others. Manners (good or bad) are deeply seeded in us. It is hard to fake good manners. People who have deep respect for others, who takes the presence of the other seriously, do not need to contrive good manners. They just naturally act in a way that acknowledges the dignity of the other. If I am well mannered when a V.I.P. is in the room but ill mannered to the person who serves tables at the restaurant, my sense of self must be pretty unstable.

In the mass, the first person with whom we are concerned is Jesus Christ himself. The crucified and risen Christ has chosen to be truly present to us, intimately present—present in his Word, bodily present in the form of bread and wine. And then, of course, there are the others around us who have been drawn by faith to be present. In the light of this great Mystery, a living faith will naturally instill in the faithful a deep-seated “holy courtesy” toward Christ and those he has called together at the mass.

This point leads me to a few straightforward words about liturgical manners in our Sunday masses.

Arriving on time reflects our respect for the sacred mysteries we celebrate. To be present and seated in the Church before the Liturgy begins is, in a sense our first act of adoration, and of respect for others. Unexpected developments now and then make this impossible. But let's be honest. Too many arrive late.

Present and seated and praying in the church. Important moments require inward preparation. The actor about to go on stage, the executive before a crucial meeting, even the athlete before the game instinctively observe a few moments of silence for “gathering” themselves (On game day, the rule for my high school football team was two hours of silence before boarding the bus for the stadium—my first introduction to meditation!) Many in our parish come early to pray quietly before mass in the church. It is a simple point of respect to refrain from distracting them. Loud laughter, chatting with friends, sharing jokes are all natural and happy human exchanges, but not in the few minutes before the mass begins

Remaining until the mass concludes with the final blessing and exit of the liturgical ministers is good liturgical manners (emergencies and urgent obligations aside). There is an apparent misunderstanding here that needs to be addressed. The rite of Holy Communion does not end when the Eucharistic body is reposed in the tabernacle. If you leave the church at that point, you are leaving during Holy Communion. The Communion rite itself ends with the prayer spoken by the celebrant, thanking God for the Sacrament.

Surely we want to avoid the sort of “minimalism” that regards receiving the Lord’s Body as an obligation to be dispensed with as quickly as possible. Holy manners require a little holy leisure for the sake of our holy courtesy to our Lord Jesus Christ.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 7, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 14, 2018 – Mark 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"...Jesus responded, "You know the commandments: You shall not kill, etc." The man said to Jesus, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement, the man's face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Commentary:

Today's Gospel illustrates the frequent conflict between wisdom and wealth. The man who asked the secret of everlasting life was clearly a thoroughly good person. But Jesus senses in this man an attitude of not needing anyone else. Jesus tells him, in effect, "All the resources on which you rely are useless. Get rid of them, trust in God, and follow me." The challenge here was not to poverty as such, but to trust. Salvation is God's gift, not a reward for human efforts.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "The state has an interest (responsibility) in protecting the poor, the elderly, and disabled persons. ..The difficulty in defining terminal illness and the risk that a dying patient's request for assistance in ending his or her life might not be truly voluntary justified the prohibitions on assisted suicide we uphold here." Chief Justice William Rehnquist
